

LOCALS

Supt. Chalcraft went to Salem, Tuesday.

Leon Reinken was out from Salem Tuesday evening.

Rena Mann was absent from the school room during the final examination.

Since the Kaiser school closed Clarence Cooper has been working at his father's dairy.

Reuben Saunders was out from Salem several times this week on his motor cycle.

Miss Hutchinson arrived home Wednesday, having spent several days at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific-Exposition, and reports having had an enjoyable time.

A new stump puller was unloaded at the depot Wednesday. It is a first-class machine of the latest improvement and what the farm has been in need of for some time.

On last Friday afternoon Miss Irene Campbell played 71 games of tennis in the semi-finals at the Irvington Tennis Tournament, playing from 2:30 P. M. to 7:30 P. M.

The office force is willing to certify that the doughnuts which were made by the kitchen force on Wednesday evening were of an A No. 1 quality, because they sampled them.

Who was it that said "Hurrah for Miss Harold?" It was the boys and girls on Wednesday evening when they went to supper and found the toothsome doughnuts which had been made for the student body by the kitchen force.

Martin J. Sampson writes to the American to have his address changed from Hampton Institute, Virginia, to Amherst, Mass., R. F. D., care of W. H. Sanderson. From the above the American notes that Martin is an outing pupil for the summer in the New England States and we feel sure that he will make good.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL.

The ice cream Social given by the Class of '09 in the gymnasium Tuesday evening was one of the most unique and enjoyable gatherings the students of Chemawa have ever had the pleasure of attending. The beautiful and artistic manner in which the gymnasium was decorated was remarkable.

One of the interesting features of the decorations was a beautiful panel surrounded by the class colors, purple and gold, which contained the class motto, "Victory, Labor's Crown," artistically designed by Edward McClellan, '09. Music was liberally furnished by the Chemawa Band for the grand marches, which were lead by Asst. Supt. W. P. Campbell and Miss Irene Campbell, followed by all present, going through each movement with a natural and unaffected grace and precision that was most commendable.

Mr. Fickle and Mr. Enright handled the ice cream and cake, serving each patron liberally and conducting their business in a most satisfactory manner.

Among those present were, Supt. Chalcraft, Mrs. Chalcraft, Asst. Supt. Campbell, Mrs. Campbell, Miss Irene Campbell, Mr. Gustav Froebus, Supervising Architect of the Indian Office, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. Mudge, Mrs. and Miss Royer, Miss White, Miss Bender, Miss Steponeck, Mr. and Mrs. Teabo and others of the school faculty.
