

PUPILS' ITEMS

Joe Bittles says he is the best tailor in the small boys' building.—H. F.

Violet Berner is now taking music lessons and she is getting along fine.—C. P.

Clarence Lewis went to Salem on last Tuesday to have some dental work done.

The little girls are having lots of fun swinging by Miss Brown's old sewing room.—M. S.

The gardeners are going to have a picnic in June. Chris Walker is on the garden detail.—D. K.

The third grade boys and girls went out to their gardens last Thursday to do some weeding.—A. S.

Saturday afternoon the little girls all enjoyed watching Miss Campbell and Mr. Willman play tennis.—M. J.

Just watch the Union baseball team come to the top. They mean to win the cup and are trying hard for it.—E. B.

Emma Cameron has received a letter from home saying her father will be here on a visit in a short time.—L. R.

Douglas Luke is the wonderful runner. He ran half a mile in six minutes. Cheer up, Douglas, you may make the training table yet.—H. W.

The members of the band were sorry to see John Taylor leave; he played the helicon bass; we are anxious to see who will now fill his position.

The boys and girls of the eighth grade are all glad to have Dennis Harneden back in school after a short absence on account of illness.—M. J.

Clara Guyette and Emma Havird were in town on Saturday and as it was a beautiful day, they had a very nice time. They were chaperoned by Miss White.—C. M. L.

The new sewing room is finished and the girls are now working there. As the weather is rather warm Miss Brown and her detail enjoy sewing out on the porch.—V. G.

We were glad to note in the Spokesman-Review of the 29th inst. that Able Grant, one of Chemawa's foremost students of last year, is now Secretary of the Presbyterian church of Spokane, and is also the leader of the choir.—H. O.

Company C and D would look very nice if they would only hold up their heads while marching, and stand still and keep their hands by their sides while at halt. Officers keep your eyes open and keep your companies straight while on dress parade.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES
