

LOCALS

Ruther Jake has been detailed to the kitchen.

There was a change of detail in the laundry Monday.

Pedro Chevio is the chief engineer at the laundry and everything works like a clock.

The full band is practicing in the afternoons now, as this is their last week before Chautauqua.

Could you tell by the wind and rain last Saturday about four o'clock that Chemawa won the ball game from Brownsville?

Mr. Westley is the hero at the laundry for killing a mole that has been doing a great deal of damage there to their flower beds.

There was no school for Mr. Fickle's class last Monday and a number of his boys were seen out sweeping the sidewalks.

Quite a number of boys went out to old Chemawa last Saturday to do a little clearing. We expect to hold our celebration out there.

There was quite a birthday party last Monday morning after the boys were dismissed from line. It happened to be the birthday of three boys, Fred Lewis, Calvin Darnell and Arthur Bell. There was no special place picked for the party and no invitations sent out. As soon as all were dismissed the three boys all took a different direction and led five companies a good chase. After they were caught all kinds of cards, tokens and congratulations were given.

BROWNSVILLE GAME.

After the Brownsville baseball team defeated the star teams from Albany and Junction City, Chemawa took them to camp with a score of 9 to 1 in favor of Chemawa. Darnell pitched a good game, Chemawa allowing only 6 hits. Wiggins was the star base runner for Chemawa, beating out four bunts—one on an error—and scoring four times. Our boys gave Darnell good support. A large crowd was there from Salem and had a hearty welcome for Chemawa when they arrived. Brownsville had hired four O. A. C. players to win their game, but they could only score one man, and that was on an error, about the only bad error Chemawa made.

Our boys were royally treated and enjoyed the trip.

The subs, Smoker, Burke and Souvigner were given a chance to play in this game during the later half, but their standing is to first players credit.
