

LOCALS

Reuben Saunders was out from Salem Sunday.

A number of Chemawa people were in Salem on Saturday.

John Sortor was a visitor from the Fair Grounds on Sunday.

The first and second teams report they had a fine time on the 3rd.

Mrs. Broom from Salem was out visiting her children on Tuesday.

Superintendent Chalcraft went to Chatauqua Tuesday for a day's visit.

Abe Logan of Toledo, Oregon, was here visiting his children during the past week.

Forty-five gallons of ice cream was required for the whole school Monday evening.

Mr. William Towner, from Empire City, Oregon, was here visiting his boys this week.

The Seniors are very busy preparing their orations and demonstrations for commencement.

Pickering Chalcraft left Tuesday morning for Gladstone Park where he will join the band.

Truman Lucas, who arrived lately from California, has entered the eighth grade and is doing nicely.

Mrs. Sarah Jones from Kulama, Wash., was here visiting her children Grace, Willie and Avery, this week.

On account of rain on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Clarence Lewis took his old job firing at the school building.

The baseball season is over for this season and the suits have been collected and put away for next season.

The academic building is the most active building on the grounds this week as the final examinations are now on.

Final examinations are on this week in all the grades excepting the Juniors and Seniors, who had their examinations in June.

The band left Monday for Gladstone Park, Oregon, where it will furnish music for the Willamette Valley Chatauqua, which is being held there.

The pupils were to have a picnic at Old Chemawa Monday afternoon, but on account of the bad weather it was held in the Gymnasium in the evening.

Willie Hunt, an ex student of Chemawa, now Industrial teacher at the Warmspring agency, visited Chemawa for a few days during the past week.

Chemawa's two baseball teams broke even last Saturday. The first team winning from Stayton 11 to 4 and the second team losing to Lebanon 3 to 0.

Superintendent and Mrs. Chalcraft entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ronalds, of Illinois, and Mrs. Bristow, of Portland, last week. Mr. Ronalds, who is one of Illinois' substantial bankers, is a cousin of Mrs. Chalcraft.

Silas Moon, who has been at Chemawa for two weeks, left for Gladstone Park on Tuesday where he will attend the Chatauqua for two days. He will then go from there to Tacoma, where he is employed in the Northern Pacific Car Shops.

"The Chemawa Indian Band and ball team drove through from the school. They are a well behaved and gentlemanly lot of young men, and created a very favorable impression in Stayton." (From Stayton News Notes, in Daily Oregon Statesman of July 7, '09).