

PUPILS' ITEMS

The boys are now picking hazel nuts.—O. G.

Douglas Luke is doing fine in the tailor shop.—C. W.

John Johnson is getting to be a good dairyman.—J. L.

Frazier Mecum is going to be in the sixth grade.—R. V. P.

We are all glad that commencement is coming soon.—M. G.

We are all glad that hop-picking time will be here soon —J. J.

Elmer Rabbie hopes that he will pass to the fourth grade —G. W.

John Horn is working in the tailor shop and is doing fine work.—A. S.

Ask Ella Brewer why she slacked in eating supper at Woodburn.—M. L.

Mrs. Newcomb received a letter from Mrs. Brewer last Wednesday —P. B.

Maudie Lowry and Esther Napoleon were real early birds while in Woodburn.

Every day the boys are very anxious to go out in the country and pick berries.—M. C.

Mrs. Theisz is very busy this week preparing her building for commencement.—L. M.

Next week the dining hall girls are going to decorate the dining hall for commencement.—D. T.

Mrs. Cooper is taking charge of the large sewing room on account of Miss Brown being sick.—A. S.

The tailors are nearly through making the graduating suits. They will be finished this week.

Louise Moss says that she is a fine cook in the hospital now, and does her work neatly.—G. B.

We are still going to school to learn more from our books, and like the studies very much.—G. B.

Miss Troutman's girls will soon be ready to move back into their building, as they are now waxing the floors.

New carpets are being put down this week at McBride Hall, in the sitting room, music room and halls.—V. G.

George Howard led the fifth grade in the final examinations. We all hope George will lead the sixth grade next year.—F. M.

The fifth grade girls are sorry to hear of Emma Shepard having poison oak. She missed her examinations during the past week —M. J.

William Mose is getting to be quite a coat maker. He made Levi Sortor's graduating suit. Just take a peep at it and see what it looks like.—E. F.

The girls of the Mandolin Club went on a trip to Woodburn and returned Tuesday morning, reporting a jolly good time which Mrs. Theisz, Mr. Campbell and Mr. Turney gave them.

LOCALS

Miss Brown and Miss Grear have a very pretty porch garden.

We are pleased to hear that Miss Gertrude Brewer is much better.

George Williams is a good cartoonist. George is self taught, but is doing very good work.

Sara Brewer is the youngest pupil in the graduating class, being only 13 years old. Clarence Lewis, the next youngest, is 14 years old.