

Class History

(Continued from Page 1.)

knowledge of the tailor trade, but has taken up farming in order to be able to look after his land on the Umatilla reservation. He entered the school in 1904.

Geo. Williams is a farmer and has made a good athletic record. He has also been three years in the tailor shop and is an excellent workman. He helped win two relay races from Salem to Portland. He is a Washington boy and has been here since 1905.

Albert Garry is a member of the school band, a member of the choir and the possessor of an excellent bass voice. He takes an active part in the religious work of the school and has been president of our Y. M. C. A. for four years. He is a blacksmith—having worked in that department for three years.

Alex Cajete entered the school in 1907. He is a Pueblo Indian from New Mexico. He plays solo clarinet in the band and is the best tailor in the tailor shop. His work in the classroom has been very satisfactory.

Ed McClellan is from California. He entered the school in 1906 and has been in the blacksmith shop for two years. He has also studied wagon making. He likes social life and has been of great assistance in getting up our sociables, parties, etc.

Walter Miller is another musician of of this very musical class. He plays slide trombone in the band. He is from Warm Spring reservation having entered Chemawa in 1904. He is an engineer, and in spite of his quiet appearance is one of the wittiest boys in the school.

Leon Reinkin is making his mark as a tailor. He has been working for G. W. Johnson of Salem for the past three months. Before that he learned his trade here. He came to school in 1901 from Alaska.

Loulin and Sara Brewer are children of our former disciplinarian, D. E. Brewer. They both stand high in their classroom work. Loulin is a gardener, and Sara, who is the youngest member of the class, has had instruction in the domestic science department, cooking, dressmaking and housekeeping.

Katie Henry is one of our best basketball players, having played forward in the girls' team for three years. She has had instruction in domestic science and nursing and is a very good seamstress. She is from Warm Spring, Oregon, and has been here since 1904.

Ralph Allen entered school in 1906. He is from Washington and is quite proficient in the engineering line of work, devoting all his spare time to that study. His classroom work is also satisfactory.

Violet Bourner came to Chemawa in 1906. She formerly attended the Haskell Institute in Kansas. She has taken a prominent part in the social activities of the school. Miss Bourner is an excellent seamstress and has been of great assistance in the sewing department.

Joseph Dillstrom entered school in 1906. He is a Californian and the Homer Davenport of Chemawa. As an artist he excels all others in the school. He is a cartoonist of considerable merit, and has made a number of cartoons for our school paper. He works in the printing office. He has been a member of the football team and also of the track team.

Margaret Lowry, the valedictorian of the class, well deserves the honor of that

(Continued on page 6.)