Word was received here recently from Mr. J. Venter, who formerly was harness-maker at Chemawa. Mr. Venter is now at his old home in Lincoln, Nebraska, and is getting along nicely. He sends best wishes to Chemawa friends.

Dr. Lieurance took a number of his hospital boys to the banks of the "Beautiful Willamette" yesterday and passed the day eating chicken and swimming both enjoyable diversions. The doctor bought some chickens of a farmer near the river and was furnished a target rifle to shoot them with, but after shooting nine times at a rooster without hitting him he had the boys run it and the other fowl down. Everything considered, the doctor and his boys had an enjoyable outing.
