

go out into the great school of life let us be thoughtful and earnest and apply what we have been taught while here. Let us remember with pleasure and with pride the days when we were classmates and when we were students of Chemawa, and let us ever be loyal to our dear school. We wish success to our teachers and to our successors. May the class of 1909 bring nothing but credit and honor to Chemawa and to the Indian race. We now bid you all a regretful farewell.

---

LOCALS

Miss Gear left for her vacation on Wednesday morning.

Dennis Harnden is now working for Mr. Page, one of the neighboring farmers.

A carload of flour arrived at the school this week and was hauled to the commissary.

Many children are leaving for their homes, where they will spend their vacation.

Shingles have arrived and work will soon be started in re-shingling the gymnasium.

Mrs. Cooper is acting as dining hall matron while Miss Skipton is on her vacation.

Frank Rosenberger and Ralph Allen are working for Mr. Bewley on his threshing machine.

Miss Royer is acting as the small boys' matron while Mrs. Newcomb is on her vacation in Salem.

Calvin Darnell left for Oregon City on Wednesday, where he will work in the Willamette paper mills.

Mr. Teabo and a few boys left Wednesday for an outing of three or four weeks in the mountains.

Reggie and Robert Downie left for their home in Tacoma, Washington, on Wednesday, to spend their vacation.

Colonel Pringle tested the boilers in the engine room on Monday and Tuesday and found them in good condition.

Thomas McCully and Edward Ainsworth are working on a New National bank which is being erected in Salem. Tom is working at hauling concrete while Edward is working at his trade of plumbing.

---

WISE SAWS.

If I rest I rust, says the key.—German.
Man's life on earth is a temptation.—Bible.

The fool wanders; the wise travel.—French.

We learn not at school, but in life.—German.

The finest flower will soonest fade.—German.

Were it not for hope, the heart would break.—Irish.

A happy heart is better than a full purse.—Italian.

The friends of our friends are our friends.—French.

Misfortune is the touchstone of friendship.—German.

A villain when he seems most kind is most to be suspected.—Spanish.

If you would enjoy your raiment, pay for it before you wear it.—Danish.

A handsome woman pleases the eye, but a good woman the heart.—Dutch.