

PUPILS' ITEMS

Many of the pupils are going home for vacation.—J. R.

Mrs. Theisz made a flying trip to Salem last week.—M. M.

Nellie Spencer is expecting to go to the A. Y. P. Fair soon.—M. B.

The sewing room girls will soon start to work on the gingham dresses.—C. V.

Neva Souvigner has received many postal cards from Siletz this week.—B. C.

I have been here nearly four months and I like the school very well.—M. H.

Christine Lane went home Monday morning on the 9 o'clock train.—A. L.

Neva Souvigner is the writer of a new song which she calls "The Last Rose of Summer."—M. M.

A card was received from Alice Chalcraft stating that she is enjoying the A. Y. P. Fair.—N. S.

Annie Evans and Lenore Rainville had their pictures taken while in Salem on Saturday.—N. S.

Mary Gibeau, who has gone home for her vacation, is very much missed by her friends.—L. W.

Belle Dillstrom is working in a hotel at Underwood, Wash., and is getting along nicely.—A. E.

Hannah Holiday made a flying trip to Warm Springs to-day. Hope she will return soon.—L. S.

Mrs. Theisz is going to take the mandolin club girls to the Seattle Fair soon. We will miss her.—E. F.

Phyllis Fairfield has received some pretty dresses from her mother and she is proud of them.—L. D.

We are glad to hear of Maggie Wynaco recovering and hope she will return to school again.—S. H.

We are all sorry to hear of the accident of Aaron Brazil which happened on Sunday afternoon.—M. G. D.

I am very anxious for the school to open again, for I just hate to see all my friends and schoolmates leave.—M. G.

Mary Costa has received many postal cards from her friends stating that they are anxious to return to Chemawa.—A. B.

Many of the children are going home to spend their vacation. We hope they will all return when the school starts.—B. M.

The Sunday afternoons are certainly enjoyable when you sit out on the cool lawn and the band is giving a concert at the time.—M. L.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. Campbell went out to visit one of the best hop yards and brought a sample of the hops back with him.—I. T.

Sallie Boswell, who has been working in the sewing room for some time, is now working for Mrs. Campbell in Gussie Cameron's place.—M. C.

Six of the McBride Hall girls, chaperoned by Mrs. Rcyer, went to town on Saturday and their report was that they had a very nice time.—E. W.

Jennie England and Dora Luke are the best dress makers in the little sewing room and Martha Decker, the foreman, is very proud of them.—N. B.

The small girls sewing room is very busy making sheets and pillow cases for the school. They will have to make 1,000 sheets and 600 pillow cases.—L. R.