

THE VACATIONERS.

Miss Dohse is spending her vacation quietly at the school.

Miss Leader is rusticated at her home in Troutdale, Oregon.

Mrs. Newcomb is rusticated quietly at her home in Salem.

Mr. Swaboda and his family are at the beach at Newport.

Miss Skipton is spending her vacation with friends at Corvallis.

Miss Steponeck left for Newport beach to spend her vacation there.

Mrs. Liphart is spending her vacation on her farm near Chemawa.

Mr. John Westley left with his family for a short trip over land to the coast.

Mr. Chas. H. Woods, our carpenter, is enjoying his vacation at Tillamook Bay and Newport.

When last heard from, Miss Grear was at the Breakers, enjoying her first dip in the waters of the Pacific.

Mr. Teabo left with a party of five or six boys over land for the coast, fishing and hunting, thus to spend their vacation.

Mrs. Teabo is spending her vacation in the Sound country and will visit the Yukon Exposition before returning to Chemawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are spending their vacation in the Sound and at Hadlock, Mr. Smith's home, and will spend some time in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Fickle are picking water-gates from the beach at Newport and will then visit the Seattle Exposition during their vacation.

Miss White spent part of her vacation visiting the Yukon Exposition at Seattle and says that the floral arrangements of the Fair are handsome.

Mr. Enright, being of a practical turn of mind occupied part of his vacation in improving his farm in Polk County,—for recreation going to Portland.

Mr. Mann spent a few days of his vacation in the "Rose City."

SCRAPS OF INFORMATION.

Four hundred gallons is the average yearly milk yield of a cow.

More than three-quarters of the world's coffee comes from Brazil.

There is no structure in existence that would hold a pound of radium.

Turkey has a greater proportion of aged persons than any other nation.

The population of Russia is increasing at the rate of 2,500,000, per annum.

Twenty minutes is as long as a sperm whale can remain under water.

Seventy thousand people are employed in the linen industry in Ireland.

It is calculated that 29,000,000, children attend Sunday school throughout the world.

Fifty years' records of criminal statistics show that thievery has decreased 40 per cent.

If you want to enter Chemawa as a pupil fill in the space below, cut it out and send it to Supt. Chalcraft, who will immediately send you application blanks.

Name .....

Age .....

Tribe .....

Father .....

Mother .....

P. O. ....

R. R. ....