

PUPILS' ITEMS Continued.—

The blacksmiths are busy ironing wag-on beds.

We are all glad to see Mr. Chalcraft back again.

Virginia Garry is making a dress for herself this week.

Olive Harris is making herself a very pretty serge dress.

The gardeners are very busy digging potatoes this month.

Tom Powers returned to school from California on Tuesday.

The carpenters are making tables for the dining room this week.

Alice Sam is expecting one of her friends from North Yakima.

Nellie Boswell is making a new dress; she will have it finished this week.

Sophia Hoptowit is expecting her cousin, Frank from Montana any day.

Sixty thousand men are wanted to count the amount of people in the U.S.

Mrs. Woods is very much pleased with Ellen Toher's work in the laundry.

We are glad that Saturday night is Halloween and we hope to have a good time.

The pit for the big pump has been finished and the pump will soon be let down.

I like this school now. My brother and I work in the engine room in the morning and we go to school in the afternoon.

John Steele came back from his vacation, and is now learning how to be an engineer.

I'm a young man new in the School. Came to Chemawa to learn to be a good fellow and try to learn a trade at Chemawa school.

The girls in Mrs. Fickle's sewing room are doing very well in making the little girls' dresses.

James Joseph is a new boy from Ketchikan, Alaska, and is now working in the power house.

Mary Loftus, who takes music lessons from Miss Campbell, is improving and like her lessons well.

Anna Buck and Hannah Holiday went to Salem last Saturday chaperoned by Miss Dohse.

A letter was received from Clarinda Blodgett stating that she is married and has a happy home. We all wish Clarinda success. Her name is now Mrs. D. L. Treese.

Nose guards, head gears and football suits have been dug up from their burying places and fall practice is now on the go. We are confident of turning out a very fast and winning team this year. Assistant Superintendent Campbell is busy scheduling games from the different schools and colleges.

Brown Jones and I have been working in the power house for about three weeks now and we are getting along very well. But when we first came here we were feeling lonesome for awhile, but now we begin to get acquainted with the boys and girls and we now like the place. Mr. Gilbert Charles wrote to me from Alaska; he expects to come down with his sister to Chemawa next fall. He said Howkan is a pretty quiet little Village this fall. He said he never forgets when he went out hunting with me at Hetta, Alaska, and we killed the largest deer in that mountain.
