8. The Domestic Science department has a separate building especially adapted for the purpose and the facilities of Chemawa in this line are equaled by only one other school in the Service.

9. In the Literary Department, the instruction covers the branches taught in Grammar schools of the country.

Some information about Chemawa might be interesting. The school was established by Major Wilkinson, February 25, 1880, being the second oldest Non-reservation School in the United States. From a small school as then established of twenty-five children it has grown step by step and year by year. Last year was the most prosperous in its history. The total enrollment for the year being 775 pupils, having an average of 615. The school year closed with 382 boys and 266 girls on the rolls. Under the new regulations it is now up to the parents and the guardians and the pupils to decide which school they desire to attend. Certainly the attendance the last year speaks volumes for the continued prosperity and good name of Chemawa.

Now a last word to the Indian parents and Indian young men and women desiring an industrial education at the Chemawa school. If you desire admission this term write at once to Supt. Chalcraft

Assistant Superintendent Campbell addressed the student body on Monday evening in the school chapel His subject was "Use your brains." This was a very instructive topic and who ever tries to follow what he said will no doubt attain success and make a good name for himself or herself.

Mrs. Lucy Jones Smith is property clerk at Chemawa at a salary of $ 720.

She says she is "staying with it and working hard." Since leaving here she has been assistant matron at Tomah, Wisconsin, one year; clerk at Pipestone, Minnesota, three years and clerk at Chemawa five years. Haskell has given her a good trade, she says, and confidence in her ability. Mr. and Mrs. Smith own real estate in Portland valued at $2,000; five acres of land in Washington, $300; two good pianos and furniture, $800; deposited in banks in Portland and Salem, $800, and are living good, clean lives, which she rightly considers better than financial assets.—The Indian Leader.

Later. Mrs. Smith is now Chief Clerk at $840 per annum.
