

LOCALS

Joseph Dillstrom spent Sunday at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were in Salem Tuesday afternoon.

The Junior class is working hard at True Discount.

The maple trees are of bright golden color these days.

The lawn looks very pretty around Mr. Woods' house.

The Senior class will finish Cubic Root and Similar Surfaces next week.

Mr. E. Pepper, of Salem, conducted the chapel services Sunday evening.

Mr. McGill, of California, is here visiting his children Iris, Irva and Mary.

120 gallons of sourkraut were put up last week in the kitchen for the pupils.

A letter received from Luella Ryan states that she will return to school in a few days.

Willie Ingram, of the Insane Asylum, was out Sunday visiting friends here at Chemawa.

The painters are painting the Domestic Science and the Dressmaking Departments this week.

Eugene Williams remembered many of his friends by sending them Hollow e'en post cards.

Ed. McClellan, of the class of 1909, writes that they are having very pleasant weather at his home in California.

Mrs. Campbell received an interesting letter from Ralph Allen, a member of last year's senior class. Ralph is working at his trade, electric lighting, up in Washington. He inquired about the class of 1910 and send his best wishes for their success.

Mr. Frank Delavan and wife and Miss Minnie Delavan came down from Portland Sunday visiting their mother, Mrs. Liphart.

Colonel Randlett writes from San Diego that he reads every word of the American. We all hope he can come to visit us again.

Mr. Campbell got the Y. M. C. A. boys together on Wednesday night of last week and on Sunday afternoon Mr. Goudge completed the organization.

Nora Mann is again taking piano and singing lessons from the Sacred Heart Academy. This is her second year and she is now pretty well advanced.

The following boys and girls are Seniors: Dolly Case, Allah Madison, Rena Mann, Esther Napoleon, Orin French, Harry Jones, Frank Souvigner and Amos Smoker.

Miss Anna Bender went to Portland on Saturday to see her brother Charles who is pitching with the Americans who are touring the Pacific Coast and playing against the Nationals.

Harry Jones stood at the head of the seniors when the averages were up this month. His average was 95 per cent. Rena Mann and Annie Buck of the Junior class made 94 per cent.

A crowd of boys and employes went to Salem last Saturday afternoon to witness the football game between the University of Oregon and the Willamette University.

There are seventeen boys and girls in the Junior class: Anna Buck, Hazel Butler, Matilda John, Rena Mann, Melvina Moxley, Anna Walker, Eugene Anderson, Edward Ainsworth, James Benjamin, Thomas Case, Henry Darrell, Antoine Francis, David Graham, George Kross, Joseph Purns, James Smith and Manuel Swanson.