8. The Domestic Science department has a separate building especially adapted for the purpose and the facilities of Chemawa in this line are equaled by only one other school in the Service.

9. In the Literary Department, the instruction covers the branches taught in Grammar schools of the country.

Some information about Chemawa might be interesting. The school was established by Major Wilkinson, February 25, 1880, being the second oldest Non-reservation School in the United States. From a small school as then established of twenty-five children it has grown step by step and year by year. Last year was the most prosperous in its history. The total enrollment for the year being 775 pupils, having an average of 615. The school year closed with 382 boys and 266 girls on the rolls. Under the new regulations it is now up to the parents and the guardians and the pupils to decide which school they desire to attend. Certainly the attendance the last year speaks volumes for the continued prosperity and good name of Chemawa.

Now a last word to the Indian parents and Indian young men and women desiring an industrial education at the Chemawa school. If you desire admission this term write at once to Supt. Chalcraft.

It is bad enough to see a boy or a girl borrow a copy of the Chemawa American from another boy or girl, but when an employe does it makes it worse. The Chemawa American is only twenty-five cents a year, can't you subscribe for it? Below we print a parable from an exchange for the benefit of those who do not subscribe:

Once upon a time, a man who was too economical to take a college paper, sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a watery summer squash. The cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and failing to see a barbed wire fence, ran into it, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $7 pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence, got into the corn-field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, his wife ran out, upsetting a four gallon churn full of cream, into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock. In her hurry she dropped an $8 set of teeth out of her mouth. The baby left alone crawled thru the spilled cream into the parlor, spoiling a twenty dollar rug. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the calves got out and the dog broke up eleven settin' g hens.
