

PUPILS' ITEMS

The farmers are busy clearing land.

Gilbert Conner is working on the Industrial detail.

Charles Wapato, of Lake Chalen, is a visitor at the school.

The Estelle Reel Literary Society's colors are green and pink.

We are all glad that Thanksgiving will be here in a short time.

We were, all glad to see Mr. and Mrs. O. Halfmoon visit Chemawa.

Bertha Spencer expects her sister here in a few days to attend school.

Elmer and Belvia Dillstrom returned from California Monday evening.

The girls in the large sewing room are making blue dresses for the girls.

There are some more boys going to come to Chemawa, from California.

The Branch girls have a very nice program made out for next meeting.

The Y. W. Branch girls are looking forward to a party in the near future.

Esther Spencer, of Toppenish, Washington will soon be here to attend school.

We were all very glad to see Frances and Louise La Butie return to school.

Mary Loftus and Eleanore Lynch are learning a very pretty duet on the piano.

The engineers are now working down in the well preparing to put a new pump in.

The girls are all wearing their new gingham dresses to school and look very nice.

We are all glad to get new Histories, Arithmetics, and Physiologies in our grade.

A postal was received from Nettie Carasco telling the sad news of the death of Mr. Buckhart, the man who took her home.

We had a very enjoyable sociable last Saturday evening in honor of the football team.

Andy Walker was one of the stars in last Saturday's game against O. A. C. Freshmen.

Lilly Braden is taking music lessons from Miss Irene Campbell and she likes it very well.

Philip and Jerry Rees have arrived here from their vacation and have begun their studies.

Eugene Anderson and Edward Ainsworth are repairing radiators in Supt. Chalcraft's cottage.

The boys that went to Corvallis with the football team, reported of having a nice time while on the trip.

Alice Stanger and Christine Boswell chaperoned by Miss White went to Salem Saturday to do some shopping.

We are all glad to see Charle M. Wapato, visit the school this week, especially the Yakima pupils, who know him.

Some of the girls of McBride hall have organized a new club, and are practicing to give an entertainment in the near future.

Sunday afternoon Miss Bender took a number of girls out for a long walk up the street car line and they all enjoyed it.

Miss Irene Campbell took a few girls out walking last Sunday, and they had a very pleasant time gathering pretty leaves.

Mr. VanTassel, Mr. Brown, and the engineer and Plumber boys held a meeting in the power house last Saturday evening.

Lela Wilson and Ella Flemming are very fond of singing. They entertain the girls by singing some of their pretty songs every evening.

Simon Mathews left school on account of his mother's death, but a letter was received from him stating that he would return about the last of this month.

We are sorry to hear that Bessie Meanus is going to leave us. She will be missed very much at the sewing room as she is one of the best dressmakers.

Subscribe for the Chemawa American. Only twenty-five cents per year.