

PUPILS' ITEMS

The Y. W. Branch girls' colors are scarlet and gold.

Violet Edwards is making Mary Loftus a pretty red dress.

We are all glad to have some more girls in Mc Bride Hall.

George Kross played a star game at Turner last Saturday.

Anna Buck is expecting her cousin from Alaska, this week.

Mr. P. Bushman, from Umatilla reservation, is visiting his children.

Christine Boswell is taking music lessons from Miss Irene Campbell.

The girls of the basket ball team are all very anxious to begin practicing.

A card was recieved from Maud Lowry stating that she would soon be back.

The girls showed their Chemawa spirit on Saturday afternoon during the football game.

A letter was received from Jennie Rosenburger saying that she will come back soon.

The seniors will soon finish their arithmetic and will start in on the review questions.

The first team will play a game of football with Hill Military Academy here Saturday.

Mrs. Carlstrom, of Wrangell, Alaska, was here visiting Eleanor Lynch last Saturday.

We are very sorry to hear that Peter Seltice is very sick. His people do not expect him to live, but yet we must have hope that he will recover.

The girls are sorry to see Gladys Lucas getting herself prepared to leave for her home in California, but she faithfully promised to send each of her friends a card after reaching home.

The small engine which runs the drill which is used to drill the new well runs very nicely.

This week some of the girls from the small girls' home came over to stay at McBride Hall.

The sewing room girls will soon finish the blue seersucker dresses for Co. B of Small Girls' Home.

The talk that Mr. Frye gave us last Monday night was appreciated by every one that was present.

Hannah Holiday received a post card from Bessie Meanus stating that she wishes she was back at Chemawa.

The eighth grade pupils are all glad too see Gulacia Nelson back in school after being sick for a few days.

Maggie Desautel is expecting her grandmother from Republic, Wash., to spend Thanksgiving with her.

Miss Lizzie Martin is expecting a friend from Browning, Montana, who is to be here soon to attend school.

Maggie Jerry who was lately appointed as a head sergeant of the third company of Mc Bride hall is doing her duty nicely.

Mrs. Campbell gave her Junior class a talk last week, which was a motherly advice and was appreciated by all who were present.

The pupils of the Junior class are all glad to see Matilda John attending school again, after being in the hospital on account of illness.

Miss Grear and Miss Faris took a number of McBride Hall girls to Brooks Sunday for a walk. We all enjoyed the walk very much.

The girls had some fine yells and songs for our football team Saturday afternoon. The boys were quiet at the east grand stand.

Miss Brown says that the ten girls who will do the most work in the sewing room this week, will go out walking with her next Sunday.