

LOCALS

Mr. Van Tassel is drilling a new well.

Mr. Pugh and his force are busy taking the plaster down in Mitchel Hall.

We regret to hear that Peter Seltice is very ill at his home in De Smet, Ida.

Albert Garry writes that he is employed as clerk at the Spokane Agency. He is well and doing good work.

George Williams who is at Haskell does not forget his Chemawa friends to whom he writes and expresses his love and loyalty for his old school.

We hear that Mr. and Mrs. George Washoe, former pupils of this school, have a little daughter. We extend to them our congratulation.

Louis Murray, a graduate of the class of 1908, is working in the sewing department of Olds, Wortman and King's large department store of Portland.

Joe Dillstrom and Tom McCully of the Class of 1909 are working near Chemawa and attend our Sunday evening services. We are always glad to see these industrious young men.

Mrs. Campbell has heard from Katie Henry of the class of 1909. Katie is working for a family in Rainville and likes her work very much. Although she often wishes she could come again to Chemawa.

The American was glad to receive a subscription from Delia S. Clark, of the Class of 1905, in which she says she longs to learn how dear old Chamawa is getting along and states that she is at Dunsuir, California, and doing well. Delia's many friends will be glad to hear of her.

Mr. Chas. Larsen met with a very painful accident on Monday afternoon while at work on the third floor of the Commissary. The rope which holds the elevator had accidentally knocked off the wheel which released the elevator. The palm of his right hand was torn and cut to the bone.

On Monday evening Mr. E. Frye, instructor of the wagonmaking department, gave the student body a very interesting and instructive lecture on "Value of a Good Industrial School Like Chemawa." This is only an introduction to the series of lectures on "Wagonmaking" which he is going to give to the pupils.

DEL NORTE STUDENT AT CHEMAWA

Judge Childs received a letter from Walter E. Haight, a Chemawa Indian Training School student, a few days since, with his report card enclosed. Walter is a Crescent City boy and has a lot of friends here who will be glad to know that he is doing well. His stand in the several studies in the eighth grade is as follows: Reading, 96; Language, 80; Orthography, 98; Geography, 90; U. S. History, 96; Civil Government, 89; Arithmetic, 95, and Conduct, Neatness, Industry and Efficiency are all "very good." Walter is in the dairy department with Sam John, also a Crescent City boy. He is playing quarter back for the Second Squad in the football and is captain for the season. He reports that all the Del Norte County pupils are well and happy. Walter speaks very feelingly of the death of his friend, Mrs. Emma A. Lauff. He says that her kindness to him and her teachings can never be forgotten.—Crescent City News.
