So live, that when thy summons comes to join
 The innumerable caravan which moves
 To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
 His chamber in the silent halls of death,
 Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
 Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
 By an unfaltering trust, approached thy grave
 Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
 About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

—William Cullen Bryant.

Peter Seltice, Chief of the Coeur d'Alenes, by right of lineage and a member of Chemawa's Class of 1907, quietly passed away on Thursday evening, November 18, at his home surrounded by relatives and friends. While here Peter identified himself as a diligent and untiring worker for the church as well as the literary advancement of his fellow students, and for the betterment of the young men of his race. Being possessed of a jovial nature, he won the admiration and friendship of all who knew him. After graduating from Chemawa he pursued his studies at Willamette University, but his health prevented his continuing. The employes and students of this school extend sincere sympathy to the bereft friends and relatives.
