

PUPILS' ITEMS

We all had a very good time on Thanksgiving day.

Ella McCully was very glad to get a new coat from her home.

We are all looking forward for the hard examination next month.

The engineers are busy repairing the cylinder of the large engine.

Mr. Chalcraft went to Washington, D. C., Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett were here visiting their children last week.

The boys on the industrial detail have a new instructor, Mr Meredith.

The boys who went to town Saturday all enjoyed the shows very much.

We are all looking forward to a good entertainment on Christmas Eve.

We are glad to see the nice weather again, so that we may have recess.

Sallie Boswell had her hand badly scalded by a pitcher of boiling water.

Three of our neighbor's cows were injured by the train on Sunday afternoon.

Bessie Meanus, who went home some time ago, is missed very much by her friends.

Miss Brown took twelve of her sewing room girls out for a nice long walk last Sunday.

Leanora Rainville is expecting her aunt and uncle here to visit her in a few days.

One of the rings in the cylinder of the large engine was broken in three places last Monday evening. A new one was obtained in Salem and now the large engine runs "Merrily Along."

The girls made very pretty and attractive pictures in the "Old Sweethearts Play" last Wednesday night.

Grace Benamjin says that she is doing fine in the hospital which she thinks is the best place for her to work.

The basketball season will open soon and we are sure that Chemawa will turn out good first and second teams.

A postal was received from Laura Demers saying that she is having a nice time and getting along alright at home.

Julia Cochran received a postal card from Martha Miller sending regards and best wishes to all of her Chemawa friends.

The students all enjoyed the basketball game that was played between the home teams, Thursday afternoon in the gymnasium.

Miss Juana Holmes from Portland was here for Thanksgiving to visit her cousin, Miss Skipton. She is expecting to stay a week longer.

The band boys spent their time on Sunday afternoon in practicing new pieces. There is going to be a first and a second band soon.

Mrs. L. J. Stuart, of Underwood, Washington, was here visiting her brother and sister Katie and Corbett Underwood. She came unexpectedly.

The basketball boys met in the new gymnasium Monday night and elected a captain for the first team and then practiced from 7 to 8 o'clock.

Virginia Garry got a package from her grandma on Thanksgiving day. She was so pleased that she invited all of her best friends to share what she got.

To night our middle sized boys will play basketball with the Salem Y.M.C.A. intermediate team. This is going to be a very interesting game. Everybody come.