

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

BY PUPILS

The work in Mitchell Hall is progressing very nicely.

Violet Edwards is again working in the hospital.

Miss Brown is making a dress for herself this week.

Henry Olsen is now in charge of the clothes press at Brewer Hall.

Martha LeClaire is making a pretty blue cape for Martha Decker.

Orin French welded the broken basket in the gymnasium this week.

The painters have just finished painting a tool chest for Mr. Van Tassel.

Thomas Philips finished painting a wagon this week in the paint shop.

The painters repainted the signs of the different industrial departments recently.

Mary Boles, although not the best, is the fastest girl in the sewing room in making dresses.

Buford Spencer is making a smoke-stack in the blacksmith shop for the small boys' home this week.

The sewing room girls were very glad to receive four ironing boards and six lap boards. They were made in the cabinet department.

The mandolin club has commenced practicing this week.

The members of the Junior Class were glad to welcome their classmate, Minerva Mecum, back into their midst again.

Nellie Shepard went to town on Wednesday to do Christmas shopping.

Nick Hatch takes a great deal of interest in carrying crumbs out after each meal to feed to the birds.

Matilda John has more marbles than any girl in Chemawa. She has nearly 1000.

CHEMAWA VS. WOODBURN.

48 to 10.

On Tuesday evening our boys basketball team defeated the Woodburn team by a score of 48 to 10. The first half ended with a score of 21 to 8 in our favor and in the second half we added 27 to our score while Woodburn made 2 points from the foul line. Our boys' playing was very pretty. The team work was excellent. Twenty minute halves were played.
