PUPILS' ITEMS Continued:—

A number of sewingroom girls are drafting patterns.

The girls were all glad to have Minerva Mecum return to school.

The boys of the engineering department are busy repairing the pump in the tower.

Rena Feliz is now working in the domestic science, and she likes to work there.

Miss Irene Campbell took a crowd of girls out coasting Sunday afternoon and they had lots of fun.

Ed. Freeander received a post card from Michel Wilson saying he would be here on the 29th of this month.

The mandolin club girls are very glad to have Mr. Turney back and the club was reorganized last Monday evening.

The girls' bible class was held in Mrs. Theisz reception room last Sunday afternoon; they had a very interesting meeting.

Christine Victor accidentally fell down the stairs at McBride Hall last Friday and sprained her ankle; she was not able to walk for three or four days.

Eva Seymore received a letter from her cousin, John Billy, at Toppenish, Wash., saying that he was coming to attend the Chemawa School.

A mathematician—The Cigarette said, "I can add to a man's nervous troubles, subtract from his physical energy, divide his mental powers, take interest from his work and can discount his chance for success.

Excelsior.

The members of the Excelsior Club held their usual meeting Thursday evening. After roll was called the club heard reports from the various committees, including reports on constitution, club pins and program. It was decided to hold a mock trial at the next meeting and considerable interest is being shown in this new form of learning. Out of respect to our club mate, Milton Godowa, the program of the evening was omitted and we adjourned.

Nonpareil

The Nonpareils held their meeting in the music room of McBride Hall. The house was called to order by the president. Old and new business was called for and transacted. Then we proceeded with our program: Opening address, Matilda R. John; Piano Solo, Dollie M. Case; Riddles, M. Friedlander; Piano Duet, Dollie M. Case and Esther Napoleon; Current Events, Anna Buck; Remarks by our critic, Miss Grear. Then we adjourned.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. held their meeting in their regular place, McBride Hall music room, last Wednesday evening.

The meeting was called to order by the President and opened by singing a hymn, "Yield Not To Temptation."

Roll was then called; several members were absent. The minutes of the meeting were read and stood approved.

Annie Evans was enrolled. Both old and new business was called for. Another song was sung, "Pass Me Not."

The leader for the evening was called upon, but was not prepared. The meeting was then thrown open for the members to volunteer to speak. A season of prayer was called for, the closing song was sung and the watch word repeated, and we adjourned.
