

LOCALS

Minerva Meeum returned to school on Monday morning.

WANTED—More subscribers for the Chemawa American. Twenty-five cents per year.

The carpenters are putting screens on both in and outside of the windows of the bakery this week.

The Mt. Angel basketball team will play our boys on our floor tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The hospital would be pleased if some good friends would donate some magazines or pictorial papers for the use of their patients.

Two of our printers, Benjamin Wilcox and Henry Darnell, made a pretty good showing during the game played last Friday evening between the Y. M. C. A. intermediates of Salem and our middle sized boys.

Last Saturday Miss Steponeck received a very severe fall slipping on the ice and cutting the back of her head. She was incapacitated over Sunday, but we are glad to note that she is again all right and back to duty.

As soon as the weather permits work will begin to erect a cement walk to the new gymnasium. This will satisfy our long want for it, as we have experienced many disagreeable evenings in going over to attend socials and other entertainments during this rainy season.

In a letter from Sara Brewer, member of this year's class, we learn that she is now attending the Tacoma High and doing splendid work. Recently a spelling match was held among the students and Sara won the first prize. The prize was a hand painted picture of a girl holding the Tacoma High pennant.

The friends of Miss Irene Campbell will be pleased to know that the ranking committee of tennis in Portland have given her a place in both the ladies' singles and ladies' doubles for the season of 1909.

Since putting in type the schedule of the Willamette Valley League, Pacific University and Willamette University have withdrawn from the league. Pacific University on account of not having their gymnasium finished in time for this season's games. Willamette gives no reason.

HELLEN DILLSTROM

The hearts of pupils and employees, alike were filled with great sorrow when word was received of the death of Helen Dillstrom, which occurred on Wednesday afternoon, at the home of her brother, Henry, for her sweet, gentle disposition and womanly character had endeared her to us all.

Last spring on account of failing health she was compelled to give up her school duties, and a month later she was taken to her home in California, in the hope of benefitting by the change. It was all in vain, however, and a few weeks ago she was brought back to Chemawa that her last days might be spent with the sister and brothers, whom she loved so dearly.

Helen was a lovely christian character, and the influence of her life here will long be felt by her associates, although God in His wisdom has seen fit to remove her to a brighter sphere. Her memory will be cherished and her name spoken always with the tenderest love.

MILTON GODOWA

We regret exceedingly to record the death Milton Godowa, of Klamath Agency, who died suddenly of rheumatic endocarditis. Milton was an energetic boy and very desirous of getting a good education. In his death Chemawa loses a very faithful bugler.

Mr. Westley and Mr. Enright in whose departments he worked say that he was one of the best boys they ever had.
