

PUPILS' ITEMS

We are all glad that Christmas is coming soon.

The boys in the small boys building like to pop corn.

We are all glad that we are going to town a week before Christmas.

The boys are practicing basketball in the gymnasium in the evenings.

Dollie Case gave a very interesting talk in chapel last Monday afternoon.

We have three pet deer in C. I. S. park, in addition to a few chickens. Mrs. Leabo takes care of them.

The three bears in the pit are very pretty. They often come out. They do not sleep all winter.

Mr. Mann gave a very interesting lecture in chapel last Monday evening. It was enjoyed by all.

Miss White and Miss Nicholson took some girls out for a walk last Sunday and we had a good time.

We are all very glad that Christmas is here. And we all wish that Santa Claus will bring us lots of things.

Martha Andy received a letter from her grandmother and says that she will be here soon on a visit to the school.

Fred Bain, who is sick in the hospital, is getting along fine, and we all hope that he will be out with the other boys soon.

The engineer boys have bought a new basketball, suits and shoes. They are waiting for the shop league series of games.

Iva Philips has a very sweet soprano voice. She often entertains her McBride Hall friends by singing some her of favorite Indian songs.

The carpenters practiced basketball last Sunday afternoon in the gymnasium. Milton George is going to be the best player in that bunch.

The band and ball players who were in Eureka, Cal., and knew Mrs. Harris were glad to see her here at Chemawa visiting the school this week.

Lubova Sitsoff had her picture taken about two weeks ago and she received them the other day and she sent them home to her folks as a Christmas present.

On Monday the girls started to work in the new Domestic Science rooms, and have done very good cooking. Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Campbell ate their supper with the class.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Meredith, Emily Moss, Millie Freeland and Mary Huff went out walking and had a fine time. And they found violets and dandelions in bloom in the woods.

I had a hard time yesterday to fix up the engine in the engineroom. The engineer gets mad at me once in a while, but I don't care because he is my teacher, and what the engineer says is all right.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Marie Bailey, a former pupil of Chemawa. She attended school faithfully, but she was obliged to return to her home at Bay Center, Wash., on account of illness.

They have only a few tame deer here. We have all kinds of wild ones in Alaska. Some of them weigh about two hundred pounds; they have big horns. Everybody likes to hunt them. I like to watch them when they are standing in the woods.
