CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT

Our Christmas season of entertainment started last evening in chapel. Of the various features of last evening's program much could be said that lack of space and time prevent, but at any rate it was most enjoyable and creditable to the teachers of the school and the pupils. The decorations in the chapel are very beautiful. Work of this order is an art, and as such is cultivated in its highest form here, as is evidenced by the combinations and contrasts of the beautiful ferns, vines and evergreens with which Nature has provided Chemawa in abundance. The program of the evening follows:

1. Piano Duet—"Arrival of Santa Claus"
Dollie Case, Esther Napoleon, Senior Class
2. Song—"Christmas Bells Ring Out"

3. Recitation—"A Note to Santa Claus"

KLAMATH AGENCY NOTES.

Thomas White was called to Medford, Monday, by a telegram which stated that his father was very ill and not expected to live.

Our new school farmer is expected every day. He is to come from the State of Washington.

Next Saturday is Christmas and everyone is looking forward to a good time and the presents he is to receive. Santa will have to bring a big load to go all around.

At some time in life the average man will discover that most of his friends are mere acquaintances.

Hon. H. G. Wilson left Monday for Klamath Falls to attend some business.

Mr. Nelander has been appointed Principal in charge at the Klamath Agency.

Thos. White, the forest ranger, has moved from main street to apartments on the school grounds over the carpenter shop.

G. A. Hull, our industrial teacher, with his wife and daughter, have moved into the cottage recently vacated by M. Lister.

Sleighing is fine now. On Saturday afternoon Miss Schulz and Miss Miller took a cutter ride to the Port.

In politics it is not hard for a man to know when he is on the right side. All he has to do is to get on the inside.

In spite of the theory that he who hesitates is lost it is just as well to look before you leap.

The naked truth must be a bare statement of facts.
