

LOCALS

Miss Skipton went to Salem on Monday.

Our day dreams become our nightmares.

Silas Moon was a visitor from St. Paul on Sunday.

Mr. J. J. Swartz, the farmer, returned this week from his vacation.

Miss Evelyn Beggid of Portland is spending the week with Miss Irene Campbell.

The small dynamo in the engine-room was repaired this week by a machinist from Salem.

A small boy wishing to sharpen a knife blade on an oil stone should ask for permission to use the rock.

Miss Daisy Grear treated her friends to some delicious hickory nuts which were sent to her by friends in the east.

Mrs. Henderson, mother of Mr. R. G. Henderson, went to Idaho this week, where she will spend the winter with her son.

The Southern Pacific workmen, who were located here during the past month, have left, as the trestle on which they were working is completed.

Some of the Chemawa people went to Salem to attend the play of "Mary Jane's Pa" in which Max Figman has made a great hit. All were very much pleased.

Frank Churell, of Wrangell, Alaska, now located at McMinnville, who was visiting friends here for the past three weeks, left for McMinnville on Wednesday, enroute for Alaska.

Mr. J. R. Rainville and Thomas Richy are here from Adams, Ore., this week, the latter bringing with him, his niece, Violet Berner who will attend the Capital Business College in Salem.

Mrs. Campbell, Miss Irene Campbell, Miss Grear and Miss Faris heard the great singer Sembrich in Portland. They were delighted with the beautiful voice and charming manner of the famous singer.

Miss Alice Chalcraft celebrated her sixteenth birthday on the 14th of this month by entertaining a number of her friends at her home. An unusually pleasant evening was enjoyed by all the invited guests.

"My thinking will take care of me." The wonderful truth expressed in these lines applies to all mankind and presents the question to all who may read and think: Is my thinking such as will take care of me and leave me in a peaceful state of mind?

The American regrets to hear of the death of Mrs. Fred W. Freeman, who died Jan. 10, 1910, aged 34 years. Mrs. Freeman entered the Chemawa School at Forest Grove, March 15, 1883, and was a pupil of the school until she married Mr. Freeman 13 years ago at Chemawa, when he was the assistant tailor of the school. They left Chemawa about 12 years ago, being employed at Puyallup. Mrs. Freeman leaves, besides her husband, a little girl and boy to mourn her death. She had a large circle of friends who will regret to hear of her death.

IN ORDER TO SECURE a change of address, subscribers to THE CHEMAWA AMERICAN must give old as well as new address to insure prompt attention.....