

PUPILS' ITEMS

We were glad to see Mr. McGill come back.

The tailors' first team have new basketball suits.

Benny Bearchild is now working in the plumber shop.

Lubova Siftsoft is getting along very nicely in her lessons.

Anna Walker intends to take lessons on the violin soon.

Eddie Kern was glad to see his father here last Monday.

Joseph Gardept is one of the best boys on the farm detail.

The gardeners are pruning the trees in the prune orchard.

Esther Napoleon is making excellent progress with her music.

The small boys play basketball every day in the old gymnasium.

Mr. Westley is showing his gardeners a new way of pruning trees.

Annie Walker is doing some very nice hem stitching for Mrs. Cooper.

The boys down at the gymnasium have lots of fun playing marbles.

We were all pleased with Mr. Peterson's preaching Sunday evening.

All the McBride Hall girls enjoy hearing the mandolin club practice.

Bertha Spencer is now working in the dining hall and she does her work neatly.

The girls in the small sewing room are making nightgowns for the small girls' home.

Maggie Johnson is at work again after being out awhile on account of a mashed finger.

Henry Shaw and Elmer Ashue are still working for Mr. Cooper pulling stumps.

Christine Victor received from her home a pretty necklace, of which she is very proud.

Emma Shepard is now working in the Domestic Science and she does her work very well.

A letter was received from Viola Brown, saying that she was coming back to school in the near future.

Neta Jones, Rachel McCoy and Ella McCully of the Fifth Grade made 100 percent in arithmetic last week.

We are all glad to hear that Pedro Chevio is a cook on one of the overland trains which passes through Chemawa.

All of the pupils are studying pretty hard for next examination because some of the boys and girls failed before in their studies.

The nurses were all glad to welcome Dr. Fulkerson, but sorry to lose Dr. E. E. Fisher after he has been in the service for awhile.

The branch girls were glad to have the Y. W. C. A. girls and Miss Royer visit them. The branch girls will pay them a visit soon.

The girls of the Fifth Grade who missed no words in spelling last week were Alice Bettles, Lela Jackson, Ella McCully and Bertha Spencer.

Mr. Swartz and the farmers are very busy hauling gravel from the gravel pit. They are hauling it to the front of Mitchell Hall. They are going to make cement with it.
