Mr. Bardwell, who has been visiting his son Clarence, left last week for Mt. Vernon, Wash.

Reuben Saunders was out Monday evening from Salem to attend the Valentine party.

Mr. Joseph Dillstrom, Class '09, came in from his farm last Tuesday and was a business visitor to the city of Portland.

Miss Noble assisted the Seniors very much with the refreshments Monday. And we, the members of the Senior class, appreciate her kindness.

Does your birthday happen to be in February? In this month we celebrate Lincoln's on the 12th, Washington's on the 22nd, our Schools' on the 25th.

The Band boys are pleased to know that band rehearsals are to be renewed. New music has been passed out and active work again taken up. The 17th of March is not so far away and we wonder what will be the order of the day?

Miss Grear and Miss Faris helped the Senior girls make the delicious cakes that were served at the Valentine party. It was a valuable experience for the girls. Miss Grear and Miss Faris are both excellent cooks as well as good class-room teachers.

The Senior Valentine party was one of more than ordinary attractiveness this year. The beautiful decorations were the subject of much comment, as no other affair, with the exception of Commencement, had had the gymnasium so artistically decorated.

Just before the valentine party broke up Monday evening Supt. Chalcraft made a few remarks to those assembled. In speaking of the possibilities offered at Chemawa, for all who will make a serious and determined effort, he made a lasting impression on those present. He complimented all on the success of the party and pointed out the great benefit to be derived from so enjoyable an event.

JOINT MEETING.

The two committees appointed by the Nonpareil and Excelsior Literary Societies met in the library at McBride Hall last Saturday evening to decide upon a date and a subject for a public debate which will be held in the school chapel on the 10th of March, 1910. Manuel Swanson was appointed chairman for the evening.

The critics of both societies were present and assisted us in many ways. The subject for the debate will be: "Resolved, That strikes are productive of more harm than good to the working classes."

The principal speaker on the affirmative is Alla Madison; her colleagues are Rena Mann and Anna Walker. The principal speaker on the negative is Manuel Swanson; his colleagues are James Benjamin, Ed. Morrigau and Eugene Anderson. After all the business was transacted a motion was made and seconded for adjournment.
