

PUPILS' ITEMS

Willie Bains is now Captain of Company D.

Louis Towner is helping at the laundry this week.

Mrs. Cooper is assisting in the big kitchen, cooking.

Mr. Westley returned from his annual leave on Monday.

Mr. Van Pelt was here on Tuesday to visit his sister and nephews.

The gardeners began spraying the apple orchard on Wednesday.

Tom Powers sewed a ripped seam in the printers' basketball cover on Wednesday.

Louis Pellitier fixed the lock to the door of the gymnasium on Tuesday afternoon.

The cabinet makers have very nice finishing lumber now to work with. Two loads came in Monday.

The Senior class wishes to thank Miss Faris and Miss Grear for the assistance they gave in getting ready for the party.

Patsie Barrett has resigned his commission as chief officer of the small boys and has been succeeded by Willie Baines.

Miss Skipton is very much pleased with Julia Cochran's work, because she sees that everything is on the tables of which she has charge.

Last Sunday the sewer leading from the bear pit became blocked and for a short time it seemed that the bears would be compelled to swim.

Lourette Tellicr is still working in the carpenter shop. Lourette is a good boy and does his work well and he is making a good carpenter out of himself.

Leon Reinkin and Reuben Saunders were down from Salem on Monday evening to attend the party given by the Senior and the Junior classes, being graduates of this school, who, as a rule are invited by the classes to their annual parties.

On account of some of the Blacksmith players being away with the first team, the game scheduled between them and the Dairy Boys in the school league Friday evening was put off. The game for the same evening between the Engineers and Farmers was also put off, and the Chemawa second team played the Engineers, winning by a score of 28 to 20.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY.

Lincoln's Birthday was celebrated in the Academic Department in an informal but very pleasant manner. The chapel was decorated with flags and a picture of Lincoln occupied a conspicuous position. The following program was enjoyed by teachers and pupils:

1. Visions of Lincoln
Bart Ventrain and Willie Baines, 3rd Grade
2. When Lincoln was a Little Boy
First and Second Grades.
3. Short Speeches of Lincoln
Jerry Reese, 5th Grade.
4. Lincoln's Wit and Humor
Hugh Jackson, 6th Grade.
5. The Lincoln Cabin
Emma Shepard and Neta Jones, 6th Grade
6. Lincoln Exercise Junior Grade
7. Lincoln Exercise Senior Grade
8. When Lincoln Died
Viola Farris, 8th Grade.
9. The Name of Lincoln
Neva Souvigner, 7th Grade.
10. Salute to the Flag
11. America