

PUPILS' ITEMS

Elmer Plucker is now working on two wagon boxes.

Miller Charles is now working in the blacksmith shop.

We all enjoyed the Chemawa birthday entertainment.

Annie Walker took her first lesson on the violin on Saturday.

Mr. C. E. Frye has Supt. Chalcraft's cabinet about completed.

We are all glad to see Elmer Ashue back in the blacksmith shop.

The gardeners are nearly through their mid-winter sorting of potatoes.

Mr. Joe Rainville of Athena, Oregon, is here visiting his children.

Susie Kaufman is getting along very nicely with her music lessons.

We are glad to see Mrs. Brewer, Miss Gertrude and Ruth back at Chemawa.

The oiling of the floor in Mitchell Hall has begun and will soon be completed.

The girls in Mrs. Fickle's sewing room are making dresses for the small girls. They are getting along very nicely.

Alice Stanger, who is now working in the laundry, does her work very neatly and Mrs. Woods is very proud of her.

We are all glad to see Mr. George Picard back at Chemawa again. He has been to Umatilla on some business.

Ollie Picard will soon be ready to go into the second grade music book, as she is one of Miss Irene Campbell's best pupils.

Mrs. Brown is real proud of Nellie Shepard, she is one of her best girls and also one of the best workers in the morning division.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY ENTERTAINMENT

The following entertainment was enjoyed by the school on Washington's birthday:

1. Star Spangled Banner - - - School
2. Tribute to Washington - Anna Walker
Junior Class, Mrs. Campbell, Teacher.
3. Recitation—"I Mean to Grow up like
Washington" - - - Chas. Seguin
Second Grade, Miss Leader, Teacher.
4. A Story of Washington - Johnny Lee
Third Grade, Miss Faris, Teacher.
5. Piano Duet—Medley of Patriotic
Airs - Dollie Case and Esther Napoleon
Senior Class, Mrs. Campbell, Teacher.
6. Recitation—"A Washington Curio
sity" - - - Willie Ready
Fifth Grade, Mr. Fickle, Teacher.
7. Concert Recitation - First Grade
Miss Dohse, Teacher.
8. An Estimate of Washington, Nick Hatch
Fourth Grade, Miss White, Teacher.
9. Washington's Farewell to his Army
- - - Minnie Clark
Sixth Grade, Miss Grear, Teacher.
10. Reading—"Like Washington" -
- - Jack McWhirk and Salfie Boswell
Seventh Grade, Miss Royer, Teacher.
11. "Little Red Stamp" - Walter Haight
Eighth Grade, Miss Royer, Teacher.
12. America - - - School
13. Salute the Flag - - - School

LOCALS

Mrs. Campbell and Miss Irene attended the Schumann-Heinke concert in Portland.

Bishop Scadding was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell during his visit at Chemawa.

Mr. Potter, former superintendent of the school has written to friends here, assuring them of his continued interest in Chemawa's welfare.