

LOCALS

The following promotions were made in Company C last week: Reginald Downie from First Duty Sergeant to Second Lieutenant; Ben Bearchild from Third Duty Sergeant to First Duty Sergeant; Arthur VanPelt from Fourth Duty Sergeant to Second Duty Sergeant; Millard Charles from first section private to Third Duty Sergeant, and Patey Barrett from second section private to Fourth Duty Sergeant.

Mr. Weldfelt cleaned the paint buckets in the paint shop last week. He takes great pains in saving all the old paint he scrapes out, which most painters throw away, as he says when it is boiled over and strained it is the best to have for painting gutters, tin roofs, etc. He now has about three kegs of it saved.

A courtesy extended the debaters of the Nonpareil society as a result of the public debate on the evening of March 10th was a chicken dinner at the Employe's Club, at which the victorious Excelsior debaters presided in the capacity of hosts. Six were at the table, the Nonpareils being represented by Allah Madison, Rena Mann and Anna Walker, while the Excelsiors were present in the personages of Manuel Swanson, James Benjamin and Edward Morrigeau. This was an occasion which will always bear pleasant memories.

The Chemawa inter-school basketball league schedule was ended this week and we give a short mention of the the printers' team. But when it is taken into consideration the fact that our team was composed mostly of new material and a great deal lighter boys than any of their opponents, one is compelled to give them credit, for the showing has been fairly successful. In every game the printers showed better team work than the opposing team. They lost five and won five, and in none of these games were they out-classed except that they were out-weighed and over-reached.

AN EVENING WITH THE VIOLIN.

On Saturday evening last Mr. Turney, our orchestra instructor, entertained the school with a violin recital in the school chapel. Each number was well received, as was evidenced by the prolonged applause of the assembly.

Miss Dollie Case deserves special mention regarding her playing on the piano. The program consisted of difficult pieces, but she accompanied them all with perfect ease and mastery. This is Miss Case's first experience as an accompanist for the violin, but it is gratifying to see her making a success of it.

We hope that there may be many more evenings like this in the future. The following was the program:

Sonata in E-flat .....	Mozart
Allegro
Rondo andante grazioso
Zigeunertanz .....	Turney
Nocturne .....	Chopin
Danse Espagnole .....	Koch
Fidelity .....	Turney
Humoreske .....	Dvorak
Saeterjenten's Sondag .....	Ole Bull
Minnet .....	Beethoven
Sonata No. 3 .....	LeClair
Un poco andante
Allegro
