

PUPILS' ITEMS

Tulips are in bloom at Chemawa.

Miss Brown set out some violets last week.

The front porch of Brewer Hall was repaired last week.

We are all glad that the base ball season is coming soon.

Marina Siftsoff is working on the floor and does her work neatly.

Mr. Dillstrom is pruning all the rose bushes and fixing up all the gardens.

Caroline Joseph is now working in the laundry and does her work very nicely.

Amanda Duncan is making a very pretty white silk waist for Isabella Talbot.

Katie Underwood received a very pretty birthday present from her cousin Joe Bush.

Mrs. Ed. Morrisette was here from Eastern Oregon last week visiting her son Walter.

The engineers cleaned the pit of the turn table at the power house on Wednesday morning.

All employees are busy of evenings working around their cottages making flower gardens.

Lubova Siftsoff says that she is so glad because she got seven letters from home all in one day.

The McBride Hall girls enjoy themselves by playing ball on their ball grounds every evening after supper.

Mr. Westley is sowing his vegetable seed in the barn lot and he expects a good yield as the soil there is well fertilized.

Andy Walker and George Kross made gates for the barn yards last week which improves the appearance around the yard.

The sermon preached on Sunday morning by Evangelist Taylor was interesting and to be remembered by those who heard him.

On some of the fine evenings quite a number of boys go out running. They are getting ready for the 50-mile relay from Salem to Portland.

The wood haulers this week have the pleasure of raking up chips, etc., back of the power house, which improves the appearance of our wood yard.

Walter Morrisette is now taking lessons on the violin from Professor Mc-Minn, of Salem. He takes a lesson every Wednesday and Saturday.

The boys who are working on the plumbing detail this week are doing some nice work in Brewer Hall in the line of putting in some water pipes.

The girls in the big sewing room think they can get the gingham dresses finished and sent out by the end of the week and then will start on dresses for commencement.

The Tigers and Tyess played base ball last Monday evening and it got too dark for them to finish the game. The score was 4 to 2 in favor of the Tyees at the close of the third inning.

John Miller and Rufus Edenshaw are hauling wood this week. They get through quite early, as John Miller is a very early riser. He gets up and does part of his work before breakfast.

At present the engineers are hearing the news that "Modern Stick" (Martin Sampson) is making preparation for the party that the engineers and plumbers are going to have next Tuesday, March 29th.