

PUPIES' ICEMS

Harry Busby has entered the tailor shop.

Alex Covington is now working on the garden detail.

Big Joe says the roses at McBride Hall are almost blooming.

Lela Jackson is the chief cook in the hospital kitchen.

Fred Grant is the latest addition at the blacksmith shop.

A number of men are hauling wood to Chemawa's wood yard.

Mr. Smith mowed the lawn in front of Brewer Hall on Wednesday.

The plumbers did some work at the mess kitchen on Wednesday.

All the Engineers are glad to see John Brown back in the shop again.

Ethel Wilson is one of Miss Brown's best sewers in the sewing room.

The carpenters made some improvements at the sanitarium this week.

Mr. Pugh and his detail did some cleaning around Mitchell Hall Wednesday.

Miss Brown took some girls out walking Sunday. We all enjoyed it very much.

A room was made at the end of the upper south porch of Brewer Hall recently.

We all enjoyed the talk that Rev. G. W. Taylor gave us on Sunday morning in chapel.

Beatrice Guyette is expecting her aunt and uncle to come on a visit for Easter Sunday.

Andy Walker is now first lieutenant of Company A and Orin French is second lieutenant.

The band boys moved into Mitchell Hall on Saturday. They occupy the lower south end.

Easter Sunday will be here soon and we expect to find eggs of all sizes, colors, etc., lying about the schoolyard.

Addie Lambert is embroidering a very pretty center piece for Minnie Tibbetts. She is working it very neatly.

There is more light in Brewer Hall now, for there are skylights and holes cut below to make light for the second floor.

Tom Powers, William Wiley and Mrs. Liphart planted some flowers on the south side of the dining hall Wednesday.

We are looking forward to a good entertainment to be given by the members of the Nonpareil Literary Society in the near future.

Mr. Dillstrom and his boys have made great improvements in the looks of the flower gardens around the small girls' home.

The Tigers and Tyees played baseball last Monday evening and it got too dark for them to finish the game. The score was 4 to 2 in favor of the Tyees at the close of the third inning.

The basketball team went to McMinnville on Friday and played the last game of the season with McMinnville College. The score was 34 to 23 in favor of McMinnville.

The many friends of Agnes Douglas are sorry to hear of her making preparations to leave for her home in Alaska in the near future, but hope that she will recover from her illness.