

PUPILS' ITEMS

We are now having good weather in Chemawa.

We are having pretty warm days in Chemawa.

The band boys are staying at Mitchell Hall now.

Willie Luke is a good yeast maker in the bakery.

Jack McWhirk is the janitor of the school building.

John Darnell says he likes to work on the office detail.

The industrial boys are very busy now mowing the lawns.

The decorations in chapel were very beautiful last Sunday.

Alice McPherson is getting along nicely in her music lessons.

James Whitehead is the latest member added to the office detail.

Nellie Spencer is doing some pretty fancy work for Mrs. Cooper.

The fifth grade boys are glad to have Johnnie Murray in their class.

Harry Busby has entered the tailor shop and we all wish him success.

The gardeners are working in the strawberry patch east of the school building.

All the hospital girls and boys were treated to Easter Eggs by the hospital force.

Martin Sampson and Joe McCorkle planted some roses in front of Mr. Van Tassel's house.

Miller Charles is now working in the blacksmith shop, and he says that he is learning fast.

Last Sunday afternoon Ruth Liphart found some wild purple violets while she was out walking.

Cyril Morrisette is working with Mr. Dillstrom, Joe Dillstrom's father, on Joe Dillstrom's farm.

Miss Dohse and Miss Brown took some girls out to old Chemawa for a walk, which they all enjoyed.

Mrs. Brewer gave all the girls in the baby company colored eggs Sunday and they enjoyed them very much.

Violet D. Edwards made a very pretty dress for Miss Brewer, who is very proud of her dress and Violet's neat sewing.

Louis Picard can be seen every afternoon pulling stumps at his home. He says he is an expert at the business.

Jesse Matthews was hauling coal Tuesday morning and said that he liked the change from the shop to the outside.

Inez Brewer is taking violin lessons from Mr. Turney and is doing very nicely. She says she likes her studies very much.

On Sunday afternoon Miss Bender took the mess girls out for a walk and we all spent a pleasant afternoon in the woods.

Miss Gear took her sixth grade pupils out to gather wild flowers to decorate the chapel for Easter Sunday and we had a nice time.

A card was received from Louise Moss stating she reached home in safety. She also states that she wishes to be remembered by her friends at Chemawa.

Eugene Anderson pitched the first game for the new team which was organized by Elmer Sorahan and is known as the Frakes. They played their first game last week and held the Unions down to a score of 5 to 5. Hurrah for the Frakes.