vative desire to co-operate with the discipline and aims of the school must characterize the work of those to whom the spiritual interests of the pupil are intrusted.

8. Two hours on week days are allowed each church authority for religious instruction, the hours to be decided upon by superintendent and pastor.

9. Each Sunday all pupils belonging to a certain denomination shall attend the Sunday school taught, either at the school or in a near-by church, when by mutual consent of the attending pastor and superintendent such a place has been selected.

10. Pupils will have every facility in attending confession, preparatory classes, and communion by handing their names to their religious instructors, and these in turn shall hand the names to the matron or disciplinarian—this as a precaution to account for the presence of the pupil.

11. Truancy, tardiness, or misconduct on the part of pupils attending church or Sunday school, either away from or at the school, must be promptly reported to the superintendent.

12. For special services in church or at the school, special permission, granted at least a day in advance, must always be procured from the superintendent.

13. In the general school assembly exercises, as distinguished from the several Sunday school exercises under separate denominational control, the following only must be observed for the strictly religious part:

(a) Substitute the Revised Version for the King James Version of the Bible for scriptural readings, and confine these to the four Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles.

(b) Either form of the Lord's prayer as given in the Revised Version.

(c) For song exercises use the "Carmina for Social Worship," omitting the following hymns: Nos. 106, 108, 110, 111, 119, 161, and 165.

(d) These assembly exercises are to be conducted by the superintendent of the school, or some employee or pupil designated by him; but not a minister or priest unless the superintendent should be one, in which case he acts ex officio.

(e) The privilege of addressing the school at these exercises will be cordially offered to all ministers and priests; but doctrinal instructions or denominational teachings must not be permitted.

(14) Regular and compulsory attendance is demanded on the part of all pupils at the regular assembly exercises conducted by the superintendent of the school.

15. Superintendents shall be required to carry out these regulations. They are required not only to co-operate loyally with this Office in holding the balances equally between all churches, granting them equal privileges and excluding special privilege, but must not under any circumstances allow their personal prejudices or church affiliations to bias them in any way.

R. G. VALENTINE,
Commissioner.
