NONPAREIL ENTERTAINMENT.

Last evening in chapel the members of the Nonpareil Literary Society gave an entertainment which was most enjoyable in every way. Indeed, all the members and their critic, Miss Grear, have reason to feel proud of what was presented and the manner of presentation.

A feature of the evening was the presentation of the Nonpareil colors to the Excelsiors. This was in accordance with the terms of agreement regarding the debate between these societies a couple of months ago—the losing society was to forfeit its colors. Last night a most beautiful Nonpareil pennant was presented to the Excelsiors by Anna Walker, who made appropriate presentation remarks. Martin Sampson, president of the Excelsior Society, received the colors and voiced his appreciation and that of his society in a few well chosen words. Following is the program rendered:

1. Chorus - - - - - Society
2. Recitation—"Entertaining Sister's Beau"
- - - - - Olive Harris
3. Piano Duet - - - - -
- - - - - Leanore Rainville and Mary Loftus

4. Monologue—"Miss Pattigrew's Reception" - - - - - Anna Walker
5. Piano Solo - - - - - Esther Napoleon
6. Vocal Solo - - - - - Viola Ferris
7. Double Quartette - - - - -
8. Debate—Resolved, That Indian boys and girls should have separate institutions.
9. Piano Solo - - - - - Dollie Case
10. Dialogue - - - - -
- - - - - Nellie Spencer and Eleanor Lynch
11. Piano Duo - - - - -
- - - - - Dollie Case and Esther Napoleon
12. Song - - - - - Society

PUPILS' ITEMS.

Hannah Holiday and Annie Buck went to see the horse show last Saturday and enjoyed it very much.

The musical entertainment given by the orchestra Monday evening was enjoyed very much by all who attended.

Little Irving Shepard who is the morning orderly in Mrs. Campbell's school-room is back after a few days absence.

We were all glad to see Walter Haight come in first in the try-out Monday night and we all hope Chemawa wins the relay race again.

Minerva Mecum received some very pretty birthday presents from her aunt and uncle of Marshfield, Ore., and she is very proud of them.

Miss Troutman received a very pretty plant from Portland, Oregon, last Monday morning, and is going to plant it by the front porch of the small girls' home.

At present the band boys are hearing in the band hall that Mr. C. E. Larsen, the band leader, will give another examination in music April 23. Now boys, let us see who will stand highest in average.

Hugh Jackson is the main man out in the stump patch. He seems to understand his business quite well.
