

PUPIES' ITEMS

Rain on Wednesday.

Theodore Schelikoff is working on the dairy.

James Olney went to Salem on Wednesday.

Jack McWhirk is janitor at the school building.

Andy Walker assisted Mr. Lansing on Wednesday.

Mr. Smith went to Portland on Wednesday on business.

Jim Slaughter entered the carpenter shop on Wednesday.

Ask Eugene Anderson who is on the lead in the coast league.

Mr. Meier did some plumbing work in Brewer Hall lavatory on Tuesday.

Mr. Jones was out from Salem on Tuesday in his automobile on business.

Some lumber arrived at the school on Wednesday for use in the cabinet shop.

Simon Matthews made a baseball plate for Alex Covington's shoe on Wednesday.

The painters started to paint the porches of Brewer Hall on Wednesday.

Orin French and Amos Smoker fixed a stove pipe in the school kitchen this week.

Andy Walker went to Salem on Wednesday on business for the Reliance literary society.

Mr. Campbell went to Portland on Tuesday to witness the opening of the baseball season.

In a practice game of baseball on Wednesday evening the first team defeated the second team 6 to 0.

James Finley was in charge of the industrial boys on Wednesday afternoon while Mr. Dillstrom was in Salem.

Mr. Bergeman and mother, and Mrs. Bergeman and mother, of Umatilla, are here this week visiting the school and friends.

The engineers made a general clean-up of the old room behind the plumber shop on Monday, where were located all the condemned pipes, etc.

Simon Matthews is in charge of the blacksmith shop in the afternoon these fine days while the instructor, Mr. Mann, is in charge of a force working in the stumps.

Maggie Jerry is expecting her uncle, Antoine Stick, from Owyhee, Nevada, on his way to Burns, Ore., and she hopes that he will make a long visit here at Chemawa.

Louise Johnson received from home yesterday some very pretty brown goods to make herself a nice dress. She says she thinks she can make it without any help. She also got a nice pair of brown shoes.

Marie Shaishnikoff is one of the smallest and youngest dressmakers that Chemawa has ever had. She is ten years old and can make a dress by herself. She is helping the dressmakers in making the percales for the small girls.

The Rose Avenue League has discontinued its playing for the present for the purpose of giving time to the relay runners to get their training and also for the first team to get settled. After this the league will be started again. As it is now the standing of the teams is the same as before published.