

LOCALS

Dewey Billey returned from Toppenish last week.

Employees and pupils were out walking last Sunday.

Alice Chalcraft missed school lately owing to a sore throat.

A ventilator is being put up in the roof of Meditation Hall.

Last Tuesday the engineer boys repaired a washer in the laundry.

Anna Walker visited her mother in Salem last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Philips left for the north on Friday, after a week's visit with his children.

The honor of finding the first strawberry this spring is claimed by Elwood Townner.

Aurelius Talbot lost his place at the training table, but he expects to regain it in the next try-out.

Mr. Campbell returned from the north on Tuesday, where he had been on business for the school.

Every evening you may hear Beatrice Guyette reciting the dormitory card in her room at McBride Hall.

The members of Company C are now taking the setting-up exercise, along with their regular drilling.

Miss Grear and Miss Ferris wish to thank the girls who left the pretty May basket at their door on May day.

Last week Robert Jake and Theodore Schelikoff took their turn at making butter in the dairy department.

The girls appreciate the help and instruction given them by Mrs. Fickle in making their own summer dresses.

Many of the school pupils are planning how they shall arrange their school gardens with the aim of winning a prize.

We are now looking forward to the coming of Halley's comet. It is expected to be within fourteen million miles from us.

Plenty of rain is what the farmers and gardeners wanted for their plants to grow. This we have had during the past few days.

One of the school features is the changing of details. Those who worked in the dining room last week are now working in the laundry.

Mr. Dillstrom is taking very good care of the lawn. After mowing it, he then has his detail go over it and rake up all the dead grass.

The first roses are blooming at Chemawa. In a week or two there will be an abundance. The bushes are now heavy with buds.

The swings are again put up on the small girls' play ground. They are the source of much pleasure to the little folks of Chemawa.

The baseball game which was arranged for Saturday between the home team and that from Willamette University was postponed on account of rain.

The boys have completed the work at Waconda where they had been setting out an orchard for Mr. McMahn. They returned to the school Sunday evening.

In the weekly try-out on Monday the runners came in in the following order: Haight, S. John, Mose, Olney, L. Dan, J. Finley, Arquette, Aineworth, Michel, Spencer, F. Dan, Grant, Moses, Pratt, Loftus, E. Ashue, P. Williams, F. Acosta, Wilcox, Talbot.