

LOCALS

Cyril Morrisette has been appointed Industrial Teacher at the Umatilla Indian School.

Miss Jane Evans was up from Portland one day this week for a visit with friends.

Mr Chalcraft spent several days in the north visiting Tulalip Agency in the early part of this week.

Commencement invitations have been received from Haskell Institute (June 1 to 15) and Chillico (June 12 to 15).

Mrs. Sexton, who was visiting here for several weeks, has returned to her home in Alaska, taking Lucy and Annie with her.

We are all glad to have our classmate, Dollie Case, with us in school again. Dollie has been quite ill, but has fully recovered.

Nellie Shepard and Alice McPherson, who went home to Alaska, remembered a number of their friends by sending post cards en route.

Mrs. Campbell misses her little orderly, Irving Shepard, who is now in the hospital. He is a fine little orderly—faithful and capable.

Miss Brown is acting matron of the small girls' home, vice Miss Steponeck, and Mrs. Fickle is taking charge of both sewing rooms during the interim.

There were two new arrivals at Chemawa yesterday. Nancy Deer has two of the cutest, nicest little fawns, and they may be seen in the deer park.

The Genoa School hold their commencement exercises June 19 to 24 and the invitations received are the neatest of any we have seen thus far

The delegates of the Chemawa Y. M. C. A, namely, Eugene Anderson and Manuel Swanson, left on Thursday afternoon for Columbia, Beach Oregon, to attend the annual Y. M. C. A. Convention held at that place.

Thursday morning at 11:30 the new dynamo was put in motion, with M. J. Sampson at the engine and Chief A. D. Van Tassel at the switch board. It is twice as large as the old generator.

An ice cream sociable was given on Tuesday evening in the gymnasium for the Y. M. C. A. and was well attended by both employes and pupils. Mr. Enright and Mr. Fickle were selling and succeeded in disposing of about 25 gallons.

Mrs. Westbrook and her sister from Harbor, Oregon, visited the school last week, being friends of Letsy and Jimmie Brown, knowing them at their home, and were desirous of seeing them. They had a very pleasant visit at Chemawa.

The baseball team went to St. Paul yesterday and crossed bats with the team representing that town and though they played a very good game they were unable to down the hired players from throughout the state and the game resulted 6 to 0.
