

The Chemawa American

Published Weekly at the United States Indian Training School.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, 25 CENTS A YEAR. CLUBS OF FIVE OR OVER 20 CENTS.

Entered as the Chemawa, Oregon, Postoffice at special second-class mail matter.

PRINTING STAFF

BENJAMIN WILCOX, HENRY DARNELL, JOHN SERVICE, ROBERT SERVICE, OSCAR CASE, JASPER GRANT, REGGIE DOWNIE, HARRY STONE, PATSY BARRETT.

RHODES WOODS.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Woods on Tuesday evening, July twelfth, when their daughter, Evelyn, and Mr. Frank A. Rhodes were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Dawson, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd of Portland.

The living room and dining room were elaborately decorated in ferns, pink and white sweet peas, pink and white roses and white lilies. The ceremony was performed in a floral bower erected at one end of the living room, the bride and groom standing under a floral bell.

Miss Irene Campbell presided at the piano and as the music of Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played the bridal party entered the room.

The groom and his best man, Mr. F. Harritt of Salem, were followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Hallie Coad of Dallas, and the ring bearer, little Florence Van Tassel of Chemawa. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away.

The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine over white silk. She wore a full length tulle veil and her beauty was the subject of much comment. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid was gowned in white lingerie over pink silk. The bride's mother wore a modish gown of silver gray messaline.

Immediately following the ceremony refreshments were served.

Many handsome presents were received and hearty congratulations were offered to the happy young couple. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome bracelet. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes left for Portland on the Oregon Electric. After spending a few days in Portland they will go to their home in Tillamook, where Mr. Rhodes, who is a young merchant of that place, has a home ready for his bride.

Mrs. Rhodes will be greatly missed by her friends. She has greatly endeared herself to all here. She has grown up at Chemawa, having come here with her parents when a very little girl. She is a good musician and her sweet voice has given much pleasure to us all. We all extend to her and her husband our warmest congratulations and best wishes for long life and happiness.

BREVITIES.

The farmers started to haul hay today.

Elmer Henry was a Salem visitor on Wednesday.

Henry Olsen is now assisting with the kitchen work.

Gertrude Comer is visiting her sister Genevieve this week at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith moved yesterday from Brewer Hall to apartments in the small girls' building.

Rev. Baur, of the Congregational Church of Salem, and Mrs. Steusloff, a cousin of Miss Skipton and a member of that church, were visiting Mrs. Brewer and Miss Skipton yesterday afternoon.