

LOCALS

Tony Reed is making the yeast in the bakery this week.

Supt. and Mrs. Chalcraft and Alice were Portland visitors this week.

Born—To the wife of Mr. Henry Dillstrom, Chemawa, Oregon, July 19, 1910, a daughter.

The gardeners cleared all the barrels out of the room opposite the dairy house on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Joseph Gay, of Siletz, is here this week visiting his son, Frank, who is seriously ill in the hospital.

Mrs. Donald P. Campbell and son are expected to arrive today from Spokane, Wash., for a visit with Chemawa relatives.

Orin French made a beautiful pansy border around the top of the blackboard in the senior and junior class room on Wednesday.

A number of boys are being detailed daily this week to work in the gymnasium to get it cleaned up and ready for commencement.

Harry Jones, the valedictorian of this year's class, returned to school on Wednesday evening from Grande Ronde, where he had been on business.

A report has reached the American to the effect that Oscar Case has tried his hand at job printing since arriving at his home in Wrangell, Alaska, a couple of weeks ago. He has made as much as $2 per day, which is pretty good for Oscar. He was an apprentice in this office during a portion of the time he was at school here.

Mr. Dillstrom came to the school Tuesday on business.

Miss Skipton started on Wednesday to decorate the dining hall for commencement.

Leon Littleman left on Tuesday afternoon on the 4:15 car for his home in Washington state.

Some of the teachers put up their 1910 display in the show case at the school building this week.

Word has reached the school that Grace Carson, a former pupil, has lately been married. All wish her success.

Sallie, Nellie and Christine Boswell returned to Chemawa on Tuesday from Seattle where they spent a short vacation.

On account of so many large forest fires in the different parts of the state it has been quite smoky around Chemawa for the past few days.

Boys from the berry camp say that Eugene Anderson during his short period as cook at that place performed like a veteran at that work.

The two Miss Stensloff, Miss Edith Shaw and Wilda Solomon, of Salem, are guests of Miss Skipton this week. They will remain over commencement.

The American is pleased to report that Miss Ella Brewer has been awarded her diploma for completing the course of study in the Tacoma Business College.

From press notices it has been learned that Miss Irene Campbell has been playing unusually good tennis in the tournament held in Portland this week.

It may be interesting to our readers to learn how our ball team is making it at Chautauqua. They have already played three games, winning two and losing one.