

LOCALS

Misses Paris and Grear enjoyed a trip to California during their vacation.

Willie Ready has entered the printing office and is a very bright "devil."

Mrs. N. J. Cambell and Miss Irene Campbell arrived home from Portland a few days ago.

Miss Brown arrived home from Portland a few days ago, having concluded her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are now domiciled in the brick house north of the school, a portion of which is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Dillstrom.

After this week the school and industrial work will be thoroughly organized and we will be able secure more news relative to local matters.

A card received from Fortunato Jayme announced that he would sail from San Francisco for Manila, P. I., at noon Wednesday. He was in Oakland when he wrote.

Mrs. Mary Hanahan, of Woodburn, Oregon, arrived at Chemawa on Wednesday to perform the duties of stewardess at the Chemawa Club. Mrs. Hanahan comes well recommended as a chef and an excellent opportunity is offered the girls who may be associated with her to learn how to provide and cook for a large number of people with the least amount of labor.

At Chemawa we have many things for which we should be thankful. First of all, beautiful surroundings and all modern conveniences; then we have harvested an abundant vegetable and hay crop; the fruit crop proved an ample one notwithstanding contrary reports. We have a bumper crop of potatoes yet to dig. All in all, it is hard to beat Chemawa.

Haines DeWitt recently arrived from Alaska in the capacity of chaperone for a party of pupils. Haines is a splendid carpenter, having learned his trade at Chemawa. During the past summer he had employment as carpenter at a salmon cannery at Klawack. He will return there next summer at an increase of salary. During the winter he will probably work at his trade in Grande Ronde. At present he is at the latter place finishing a house for Mr. Joseph Teabo.
