Miss Grear is sick in the hospital in Salem.

Mrs. Campbell has been visiting friends in Portland since Monday.

Mr. Teibo arrived home on Monday from a visit to Grande Ronde. He was accompanied home by some pupils.

Mr. Joseph Teabo presented Supt. Chalcraft with a mess of chirapheasants the other day, and the courtesy was very much appreciated.

Rev. McGaw, of Portland, after being compelled to miss service here one Sunday, was with us on last Sabbath and preached a very able sermon.

Pichering Chalcraft has a new shotgun; a No. 16 gauge, breech-loading Remington. Naturally he is quite proud of it and is giving it a good try-out.

Mr. A. L. French, the ventriloquist, who appeared in our chapel last Friday evening proved himself a good entertainer. His efforts were pleasing in every way.

We are in receipt of a letter from Haines DeWitt, who is working at the carpenter trade in Grande Ronde and getting along nicely. He assures us that he is now weighing close to a ton.

Friends of Fortunato Jayme have received cards from him. The cards are postmarked from Honolulu and all was well with the writer when he wrote. Fortunato is on his way to his old home at Pilar, Panay Island, P. I.

Dr. Edward Lieurance, formerly at Chemawa but later located at Crow Agency, Montana, has resigned from Crow and when last heard from he was in Chicago. He wrote that he was one of the fans at the great games of baseball which have been world-wide attractions.

A post card recently received from Robt. Cameron, who is now on the force of the Herald, published at Eureka, Calif., writes that his paper is soon to receive an up-to-date color press. Robert is certainly making good on the Herald.

Many Chemawans were in Salem on Saturday to witness the football game, Willamette-O. A. C., and all agree that the game was certainly worth while. The score was 9 to 6 in favor of O. A. C., and the latter was lucky that it was no worse.

We were sorry to be informed that Father Datin was the victim of a runaway accident last Saturday near his home at Brooks, Or. He has charge of the regular Catholic services at Chemawa and many friends are hoping that he was not seriously hurt. Particulars of the accident are not available.
