

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. held their regular meeting on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26. As it was the first meeting for the school year we reorganized and elected officers. The election resulted as follows: President, Inez Brewer; vice-President, Martha Andy; Secretary, Fanny Adams; treasurer, Augusta Chamberlin; reporter Jennie Luke; Organist, Leanova Rainville, Membership Committee; Louise Roberts, Lizette Mason and Edith Brewer. Program Committee: Ella Evans, Esther Spencer and Rhoda Silverthorn.

We opened with an enrollment of eighteen members and hope to have a strong association before the end of the year.

CUTTING TABLE CLIPPINGS

The tailor shop is, as usual, busy and the entire details making uniform trousers in order to meet the immediate demand.

The cutting table is occupied by Gideon Hanbury and Joseph Simpson, who are very capable boys at their trade and give splendid promise of becoming good cutters as well as all around mechanics.

Frank Williams has become an apprentice in the tailor shop. We hope to give an encouraging report of this boy in the future.

Alex Cajete is spending a few days in Chemawa, visiting with his friends and working in the tailor shop.

Raymond Ready is a hustler in the tailor shop. Cleaning, pressing and repairing done on short notice by Raymond Ready. For short orders see Raymond Ready — TAILOR SHOP.

HALLOWEEN.

The gymnasium was a place of confusion and merriment on last Monday evening, it being the occasion of an All Halloween social. Various amusing features were provided for the entertainment of young and old on this occasion. A couple of "spectres" made their earthly appearance on this occasion, to the enjoyment of all. They were arrayed in the latest tailored white sheeting and cut quite a dash. Pocahontas was there in the flesh or spirit, no one seems to know which, armed with a bow and arrow. Somebody having previously killed Cock Robin with a bow and arrow, there seemed nothing further offered in the bow and arrow line, so Pocahontas 'poked' off.

The time passed all too quickly and "Fall in!" started everyone to quarters.

PUPILS' ITEMS.

William Mose returned to Chemawa on Monday.

Rapid progress is being made in the erection of the new lumber shed.

Lee Evans, George Kross and Buford Spencer visited Salem last Friday.

The gardeners are now busy digging and hauling to the potato house the fall potatoes.

The bakers have received a lot of aprons and caps. Thanks to the sewing room girls.

The talk given in the chapel on Sunday evening by Rev. Dickson, of Umattilla, was very much enjoyed by all who heard it.

The try-out for the football team was held on Saturday. Two teams competed, being captained by Joe Charles and Levi Sortor.
