

LOCALS

Mr. Herbert Campbell came up from Portland to spend his holiday with his parents, sister and aunt.

Miss Hopkins, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. for the Northwest, spent several days at Chemawa during the week in the interest of the Y. W. C. A. work.

Walter Haight has purchased a horse and stump-puller and has contracted to clear a number of acres of land near Chemawa. This is a good move and we are glad to see Walter making an effort to help himself in a practical way.

Capt. and Mrs. R. W. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ball, all of Mt. Vernon, Wash., have been the guests of Supt. and Mrs. Chalcraft during the week. They have been greatly interested in the work of the school. They are enroute to California to spend the winter.

The girls are greatly pleased with the reading circles which are now most active. Tuesday evening of each week is devoted to this interesting work and much good is certain to result. The matrons are ably assisted in the reading circle work by Misses Royer and White.

Chemawa is famous for more things than one can "shake a stick" at. Among other things her roses are a great factor in lending a charm to the place. We have the beautiful blossoms the greater part of the year. Just a few days ago Supt. Chalcraft was on a "still hunt" to ascertain who had been the agent in decorating his desk with a bouquet of roses.

In a letter received from John B. Stacey from Bayles, Calif., we have the information that he has taken the Civil Service examination on "Fish Culture" and has received his ratings for the same. While at Chemawa John was always a progressive fellow and stuck and had the quality of stick-to-it-iveness. All of his Chemawa friends will be glad to hear of his success.

The junior girls assisted by the senior girls, entertained at dinner Tuesday evening in honor of their classmate, Miss Violet Edwards. An excellent repast was served and enjoyed by all. The decorations were in pink and green, the class colors. The junior class, their teacher, Miss Royer, and Miss Bertha Cooper, Miss Pugh and Miss Oliver, the maid of honor, were present.

FIRST GRADE WORK.

Following are a few samples of Thanksgiving ideas of first grade pupils—they are printed without correction:

What I am thankful for

I am thankful for my mother

I am thankful for my dinner

I am thankful for my clothes

I am thankful for money

I am thankful for my shoes

I am thankful for santa claus

I am thankful for the horses

I am thankful for the cow

I am thankful for the moon

I am thankful for the son.—Charlie Brazille.

What I am thankful for.

I am thankful for many things

I am thankful for many book

I am thankful for many meals

I am thankful for many clothes

I am thankful for many letter

I am thankful for many fruit

I am thankful for many apple

I am thankful for many school.—Wilhe Parislan.