

LOCALS

We are to be entertained in chapel tomorrow evening by Mr. Mordaunt Good-nough, who is a very able pianist.

Mrs. Underwood, mother of Katie and Corbett Underwood has been a guest of the school during the week, while visiting with her children.

Mesdames Brewer and Teabo and Misses White and Gertrude Brewer paid Portland a visit on last Saturday. We are informed that they had a delightful visit at the Metropolis.

The Nesika Club will occupy the stage this evening for the entertainment of all. The American predicts several very interesting "hits" during the show. Laugh long and heartily—it will do you good.

We are informed that Ernest, Ella, Katie and Loulin Brewer will be down from their Tacoma, Wash., home to spend their Christmas at Chemawa. Many friends will give them a warm welcome.

A letter was received a few days ago from Yeppie Nelson. It is now four or five years since he left Chemawa and his letter indicates that he is doing something for himself in a progressive way. He is now in business for himself; being the proprietor of a cigar stand in Seattle, on First Avenue, too. Good for Yeppie.

The members of the Chemawa Gun Club had a "shoot" on last Saturday afternoon, between showers. No score cards were on the grounds and exactness of detail relative to the outcome is out of the question. However, we understand that Mr. Mann was high man, while honors were even among several members for the "booby" prize.

Mr. Campbell, a member of the Salem Lodge of Elks went to Salem on last Sunday to attend the annual memorial services of that order. These services always occur on the first Sunday of December. They are attended by the general public and are beautiful and impressive. Mr. Campbell says that the exercises on last Sunday afternoon were unusually solemn and impressive.

A dispatch was sent out from Eugene, Oregon, under date of Dec. 5, which is of great interest, and is as follows: Word from the Siuslaw country brings the news that Indian Dan, or Don Quixote, died at his home in Indian town, near Florence, November 29, at the age of 115 years. Indian Dan was a member of the Umpqua tribe and has been a resident of Siuslaw for many years. White men who have known him for 50 years think that there is no mistake about his age. For many years he has adopted many of the customs of the whites.

Harold Steel is chief fireman this week.

Earl Hall works on the garden detail.

The gardeners are through digging beets and carrots for this winter.

Callista Rainville is now working for Mrs. Theisz, and she says she likes it.

We are all glad that Christmas is coming soon, and we are glad to see the bright sunshine this morning.

On Monday afternoon Mr. Johnson visited the school and we all were very glad to see him, and hear him talk to us.

Joe Bitties has entered the blacksmith shop. Joe says that he likes to work in the blacksmith shop. Joe is a busy little blacksmith.
