

meeting was to further the cause of discipline in the industrial departments. After discussing this subject at length the following resolutions were adopted:

That pupils entering the various departments be required to remain in the department of his choice for a probationary period of at least thirty days.

That the pupils in the departments can not enter another department without having worked at least sixty days on the industrial detail.

This being the first meeting of the season it was a very profitable one to all.

The following employes were present: M. W. Cooper, A. D. VanTassel, H. E. Mann, C. H. Woods, J. W. Swaboda, J. Liphart, J. F. Enright, C. E. Frye, Dr. Fulkerson, F. W. Mitchell and E. A. Smith.

RO-ENBERGER-MADISON.

The sitting-room of McBride Hall was the scene of a pretty wedding at seven o'clock on Wednesday evening, January 11, 1911, when Miss Allah Madison was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Rosenberger, Rev. Errett, of Salem, performing the ceremony. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of white, with veil, and bridal bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Rena Mann made a pretty bridesmaid, while Mr. F. W. Mitchell acted as best man.

The couple have been students at Chemawa for several years, the bride having graduated with last year's class.

Frank is now very ably filling the position of engineer at the Tulalip School and after the ceremony they left on the evening train for that place. The best wishes of all the school accompany them to their new home.

BREVITIES

Willie Lee seems to be holding his job at the laundry.

Lee Evans has been transferred from the blacksmith to the paint shop.

Archie Lane went out hunting on Saturday and he shot a snipe 200 yards off. Some shooting there, Dock!

Since the quarterly examination, the seniors are working very hard, as they were taken by surprise and did not bring their averages up to the usual standard.

Mr. Ben Durkee, of Catalla, Alaska, has been here during the week visiting his daughter and also other Alaskan children with whom he is acquainted. He and his acquaintances made a trip to Salem on Tuesday at his expense and took in a theater.

In a letter from Walter Regen, who is now at his home in Hoopa, he states that all of the ex-Chemawa students in that neighborhood are doing very nicely. He says that there are a couple of men assisting him plowing and putting in a grain crop on his place.

On Wednesday evening our boys played the Woodburn basketball team in Woodburn. The final score was 42 to 35 in favor of Woodburn. It is reported that there was much fouling and had some attention been paid to the same Chemawa might have won. Mr. Larsen went along in charge of the party.

In a letter received from Thos. Andrews he states that he is now interpreting sub chainman for the surveyor on the western part of Colville Reservation and getting along nicely, but he and his wife had the misfortune to lose their baby the 29th of December. They have the sympathy of all their friends at Chemawa.
