

GIRLS' PARTY.

One of the nicest social events of the season was the party given by the officers, housekeepers and nurses of McBride Hall on Tuesday evening. The social was held in the spacious sitting-room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The young ladies had spared no pains to make everything cosy and enjoyable. Shortly after the arrival of the guests the following program was nicely rendered:

"The Happy Jap"..... Orchestra
 "Baroness" Waltz Orchestra
 Recitation—"Asking Mother".....

..... Esther Napoleon
 Vocal Solo—"Just a Weary'n for You"..... Augusta Chamberlin
 Recitation—"Tit for Tat".....

..... Lizzette Mason
 Vocal Solo—"To the End of the World With You".... Maude Lowry

During the evening Supt. Chalcraft and Asst. Supt. Campbell chose sides for a laughing match and shortly thereafter there was not a sober face in the room. The girls then gave charades, which kept the guests guessing. Some of the young people played games and there was an atmosphere of good cheer all the time. Fortune-telling provided considerable amusement.

Now for a word of praise which should not be passed over lightly, as we refer to the refreshments. Every single item was prepared by the girls of the Domestic Science department. Mrs. Cooper, head of the department, is justified in being proud of the girls. More dainty and delicious refreshment could not be imagined—everything was perfect and served in good taste. The refreshments consisted of orange snow pudding, assorted cakes, marshmallows and lemonade.

Thanks and praise both are due the girls—all agree on this point.

ACADEMIC ITEMS.

Katie Underwood received a very pretty valentine from one of her friends.

After recovering from an injury to his foot Richard Collins began on duty.

The farmers have completed the new pigpen east of the school building last week.

George Kross gave us an interesting talk on agriculture in the chapel on Monday morning.

Jessie Logan received some very pretty jewelry from her home yesterday and she was very much pleased with it.

Fred Miller who came to Chemawa about a week ago entertains the boys in Mitchell Hall every evening with his violin.

The senior class is very sorry to hear of the misfortune which happened to Joe Purns while playing basketball. He has our sympathy and we hope he will soon be well.

The senior class had a class meeting on the first of February. The purpose of it was to elect a new treasurer, and Eugene Anderson was elected to that office. The class also transacted business in regard to the Valentine party.

The members of the junior class held a meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 1, for the purpose of organizing and electing officers for their class this year. The following officers were elected: Burney Wilson, president; Elmer Sorahan, vice-president; Viola Ferris, secretary; Ed. Lynch, treasurer. The class colors, pink and green, were retained. The class motto selected was "Ever and Onward."
