Rain on Tuesday.

The gardeners are busy cutting weeds from the spring garden stuff

Mr. Larsen left on Tuesday for the south on business for the school.

Mr. Caisse was here Saturday and visiting with Byron and Teddy.

Lieut. and Mrs. Hall and son, James, were Portland visitors on Saturday.

The band went to Woodburn on Friday. We hear that they made quite a hit.

The seniors had a test in capillary attraction last week. It proved interesting.

A few Salem people were out to see the Chemawa-Jefferson High game on Saturday.

The first blossoms of the magnolia tree in front of the office are just about ready to drop.

A large party of Salem people came out and spent Sunday afternoon in "Old Chemawa."

The different classes have started to clean up the flower beds around the academic building.

We are all pleased to report, that after many months of ill health, Mrs. Sanders is again at her duties in the office.

The Annual Horse Show will be held at Salem today and tomorrow. A number of Chemawans are expecting to attend.

Charles Blacketer, who left school about eight years ago, dropped in for a visit last week. He is making good and is now working at Siletz.

Tomorrow afternoon our baseball team will play the team of Jefferson, Oregon. This team is said to contain some former college stars and a hard game is expected.

F. L. Miller is willing to compose a piece of music dedicated to the Chemawa Band and hopes that this piece of music will be preformed at the commencement exercises.

George Orr and John Luball, prominent stockraisers of Klamath Agency, spent last week with Mr. Mann. They were much pleased with the school and intend to send their children here.

A party of boys went to Keisers a few days ago and played the team representing that district. The final score was 11 to 6 in our favor. Three Salem High School first team men played with Keisers.

A few days ago Mr. Sanders made a trip to the Santiam to fish. For some reason the trout did not seem anxious for the bait, but he secured a number of good-sized beauties anyway. His friends join in thanking Mr. Sanders for remembering them with fish on his return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shurburne of Browning, Montana, were here Sunday night visiting the girls from Montana. They were on their way to Browning after spending a month or so visiting friends and relatives in Dulce, New Mexico, and Los Angeles, where Mr. Shurburne's sisters are attending school. We enjoyed their visit ever so much and hated to see them leave so soon.
