The gardeners hoed the strawberries on Monday.

Lt. Hall went to Southern Oregon on Wednesday for the school.

We have been visited by frosts lately, but no damage has been done to the fruit thus far.

The Excelsior-Reliance debate occurred last night. A full account will be given in our next issue.

Miss Augusta Sawtelle, of Pendleton, Oregon, left for her home on Wednesday after a long visit with Miss Skipton at the school.

Pascal J. George, a former Chemawa student, is now employed at the Coeur d'Alene Agency, in Washington, at a salary of $50 per month.

Mr. Mitchell and his force of industrial workers are busy making a flower garden along the 10-foot fence near the root house and prune drier road.

Mr. Enright accompanied the members of the baseball team to Dallas last Saturday and has many praises for the boys and their conduct while on their trip.

Walter Haight arrived at Chemawa on Sunday morning from Pendleton where he served a short while as industrial teacher in the Indian School.

The gardeners are busy plowing and putting in condition the school garden tract. The pupils have long wished to see this done, as they enjoy the school garden instruction.

Our first team, accompanied by Mr. Enright, went to Jefferson yesterday to play a game of baseball with the Jefferson Athletic Club. An account of the game will appear in our next issue.

We are in receipt of information to the effect that Josie Williams, a former Chemawa student, was united in marriage on Feb. 8, 1911, to Ernest McDonald. The marriage occurred in Crescent City, Calif.

Mrs. Irene McLean, of Harmony, Nebraska, formerly Irene Sorter of this school and Haskell Institute, writes that she and her husband are getting along very nicely. At the writing her husband was getting ready to send the last payment for a patent to a hide stretching machine which he invented. We wish them continual success.

Gordon Hickox passed away on Tuesday night as the result of tuberculosis. He was aged 17 years and had been ill for a period of three months. He was a good boy and during his school days at Chemawa won many friends among his fellow students by his manly conduct. The funeral services were held in chapel at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. P. T. Martin and were unusually impressive. Interment was made in the Chemawa cemetery. Mr. Hickox, father of the deceased, was present at the last sad rites and has the sympathy of all in his hour of bereavement.

Are your hay tools out in the field where you used them last? And that binder—isn't it still standing out in the oat field where you unhitched it when the last bundle was bound? Do you always leave your plows, cultivators and harrows scattered around the barn that way during the winter? Broken handles and levers and rust galore will be your portion when you run them out for use in the spring. All things considered shed room is mighty cheap.—Ex
