

one of the guests, having been invited as one of the conquered opponents in the recent public debate. The other two members of the Excelsior debating team were also invited, and all enjoyed the honor. Thank you, honorable opponents.

LOCALS

Boost for Bittles! Watch him make the relay team.

The Excelsiors are planning to give a big banquet next week.

Levi Sortor went to Portland with the baseball team on Thursday.

Those that attended the Reliance party say that it was a "swell affair."

Roses are in bloom around McBride Hall, industrial building and Brewer Hall.

The roof tinning of the small boys' home has been completed and the oiling of the floors is now being taken up.

A number of the boys secured passes and attended the Chemawa-Willamette University game in Salem on Wednesday afternoon.

Chas. Jones, of Tulalip, has been enrolled as a pupil. He has greatly strengthened the baseball team and booked for other athletic teams. Watch his smoke.

Mr. William Lovelace, a former pupil of Chemawa, has just received the appointment of disciplinarian at the Moqui Indian School, Arizona. We extend congratulations.

Our first baseball team went to Portland yesterday in charge of Mr. Larsen. They were to cross bats yesterday afternoon with the team of the Washington High School. At the time of going to press we had no information regarding the result.

On Wednesday afternoon our first team played a game of baseball with the Willamette University team in Salem. The boys were in charge of Mr. Enright. The score was in our favor to the tune of 11 to 5. So far this season our boys have won four games and lost two.

Another try-out on Monday afternoon. The first fifteen came in order as follows: Willie Mose, Louis Dan, Kiutus Jim, Aurelius Talbot, Joe Demmert. Joe Bittles, Ed. Three Mountain, George Howard, Ewing Peters, Tom Powers, Robt. Alphus, Miller Charles, Chas. Jones, W.n. Pratt, Joe Purns, Dewey Billie, Buford Spencer.

Supt. Chalcraft is in receipt of a letter from Gordon Hobucket of the graduating class of 1908. The writer voices his thanks to Supt. Chalcraft and the school for assisting him to the road of success. Gordon is one of the teachers in the Quileute Day School and has been "acting teacher in charge" on occasion. From this it is clear that Gordon is making an unusually creditable showing. We printers are proud of the fact that during his sojourn at Chemawa Gordon was a member of our staff.

THIS IS FUNNY.

General Phil Sheridan was at one time asked at what little incident did he laugh the most.

"Well" said he, "I do not know, but I always laugh when I think of the Irishman and the Army mule.

"I was riding down the line one day when I saw an Irishman mounted on a mule which was kicking its legs rather freely. The mule finally got its hoof caught in the stirrup, when, in the excitement, the Irishman, glaring at the animal, remarked:

"Well, begorra, if you're goin' to git on, I'll git off."—Human Life.